Students 'Go Back For Murder'

Trevor Browne's Thespian troupe's first production of the year was Agatha Christie's "Go Back For Murder."

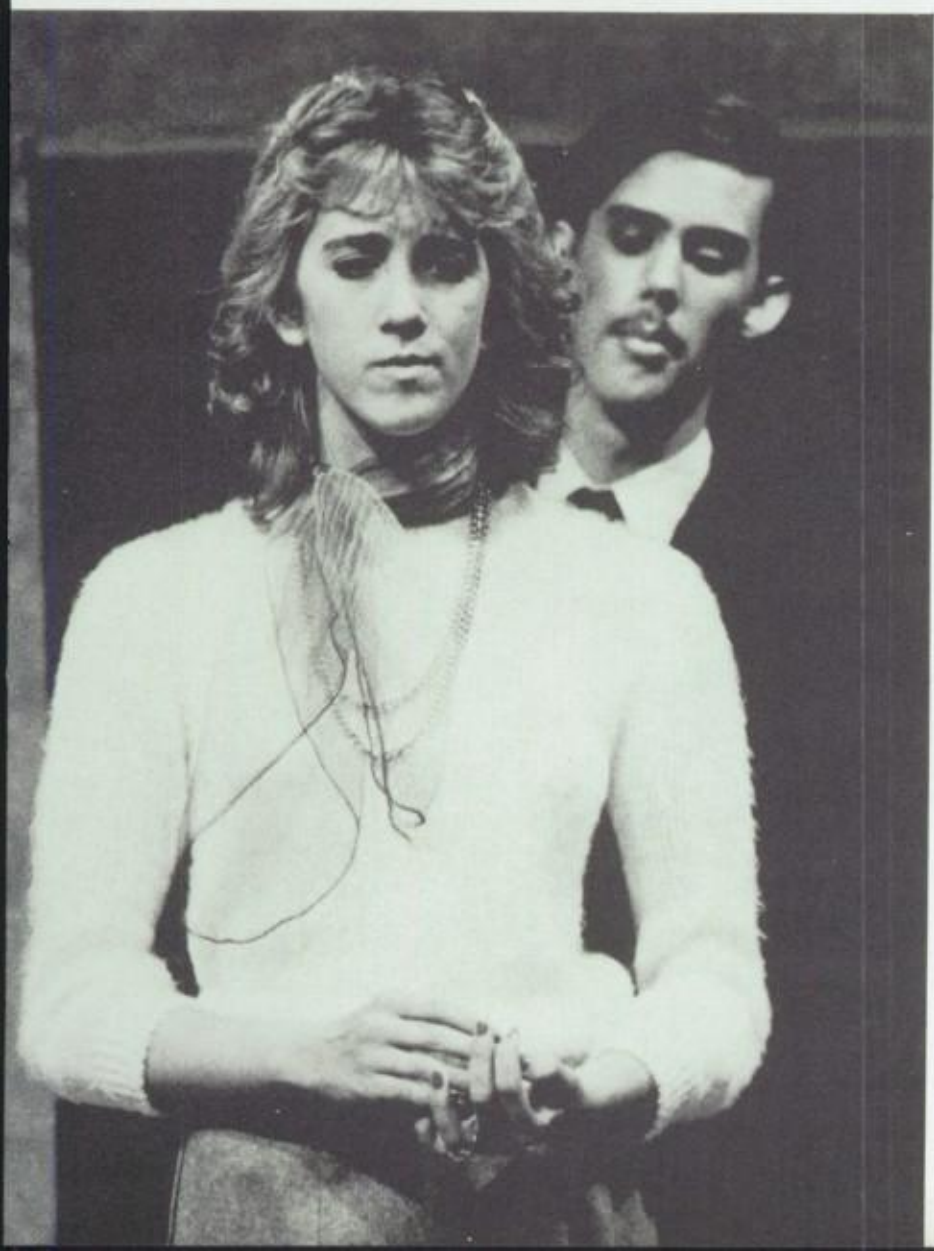

The play, set in London, is one of mystery and intrigue. It begins with a young woman's search for the truth about her father's murder which took place eighteen years prior. She seeks out the help of the lawyer whose father had prosecuted her mother for the murder in order to help her prove that her mother was innocent.

The conclusion of act one is spent with the woman talking to all those who could have had a hand in her father's death. In doing so she finds out many things about her mother and father and also uncovers many peculiarities that took place eighteen years before. Only one problem remained: if her mother didn't do it then who did?

The play's second and final act brought all the characters to the house where the murder took place. Each participant gave their rendition of what had happened on that day. In doing so the past was brought back to life in order to be studied more closely. It is discovered that the woman's mother was innocent and even though the real murderer cannot be punished she has learned the truth and can now be at ease.

'Out of the Frying Pan'

The Trevor Browne Thespians second production of the year was the hilarious comedy "Out of the Frying Pan" by Francis Swan. The play is the story of a group of six actor friends who all live in one small apartment. The group have had a run of bad luck in getting acting jobs and were all faced into accepting the kindness of their confused but generous friend, Dottie, whose father pays the rent.

Just below their apartment lives a famous producer who they hope will hire them. After endless attempts to get the producer to see their performance of his play, the group finally succeeds. As it would go, everything that could possibly go wrong did. In the mass confusion, however, "improvisation" prevails and they convince the producer to begin a road show starring them.

Amongst all the acting, arises romance and the story of Dottie's father trying to take her away. The play ends with two happy couples, six happy actors, and several characters who are in utter confusion.

Bruins make playoffs for

Browne	7	16	14	7-44
Tolleson	6	0	0	8-14

Trevor Browne continued its football excellence by traveling to the playoffs for the sixth straight year.

The Bruins defeated a less experienced Tolleson team in a lopsided 44-14 cross divisional game.

The first score of the game came in the first quarter by the Bruins. Mark Tressler plunged over the goal for a touchdown and Ray Federico completed the PAT. The Wolverines came back with a TD of their own, but their kick failed.

The second quarter was dominated by Browne. Federico tackled the Wolverine punter in the end zone for a safety. Browne's other two TD's of the quarter on 12 and 5 yard runs by Lenny Johnson.

The second half also brought Bruin successes. Touchdowns came on runs of 13 yards by Johnson, 8 yards by Tressler, and 4 yards by Anthony Johnson. Tolleson's only other score came with time running out on the clock.

sixth consecutive year

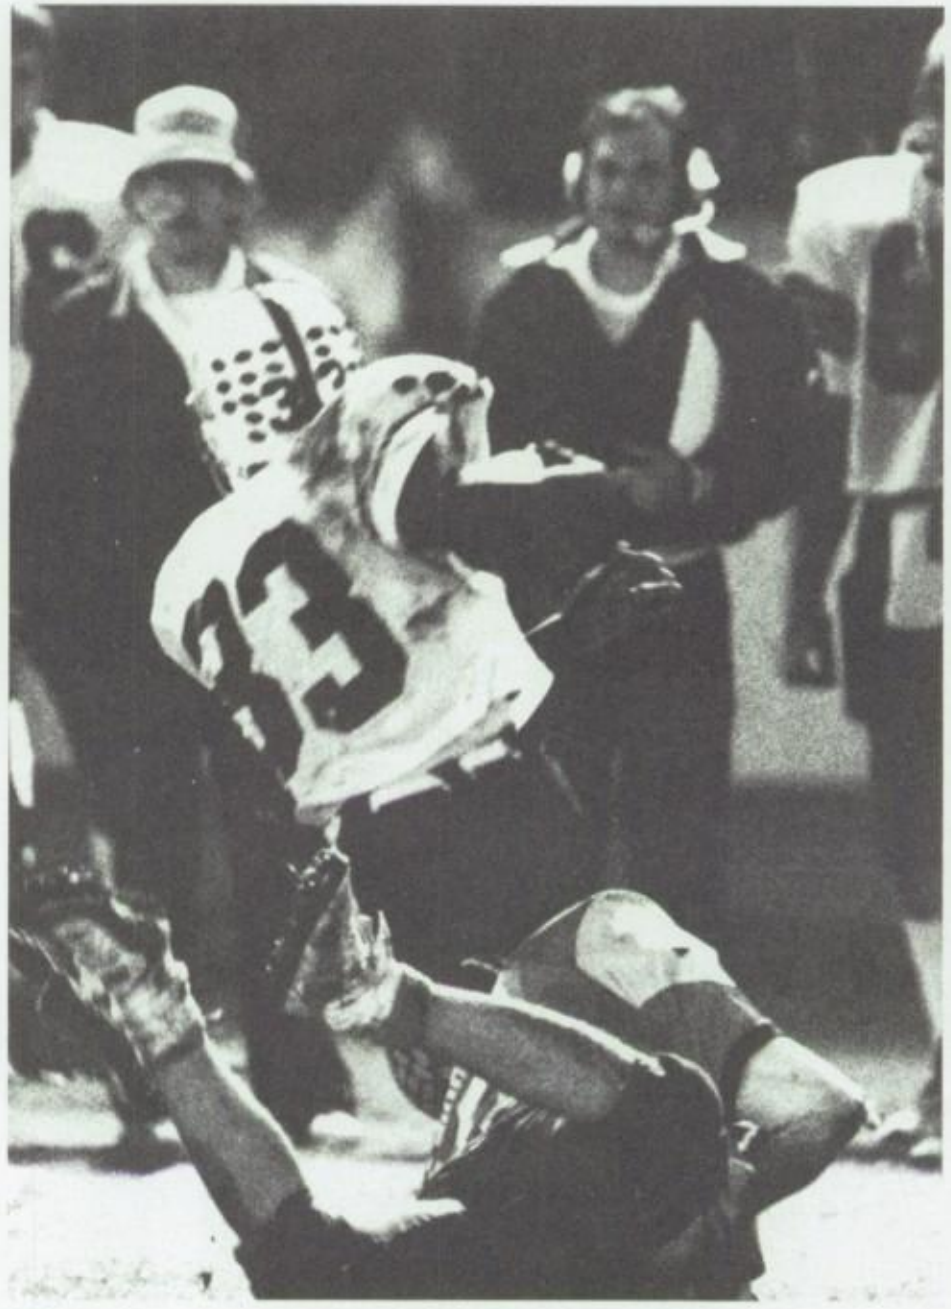

Browne	7	7	3	13-30
Sahuaro	7	7	7	0-21

Browne's quarterfinal game was against pass happy Tucson Sahuaro. The Bruins overcame the Cougar's air raid with a 30-21 victory.

At halftime the score was tied 14-14. Sahuaro was the first to score, but Browne twice marched down the field and Mark Tressler scored on one yard touchdown runs both times.

The Bruins started off the third quarter with a 30 yard field goal by Ray Federico. Sahuaro, however retreated with another TD.

The fourth quarter brought Browne's ability to stop the Cougars. With Sahuaro trailing 23-21 after a 21 yard TD run by Jeff Sing the Bruins held them on the goal line. Browne then went 92 yards to score, the last 35 on a Tressler burst off left guard to put the game out of reach.

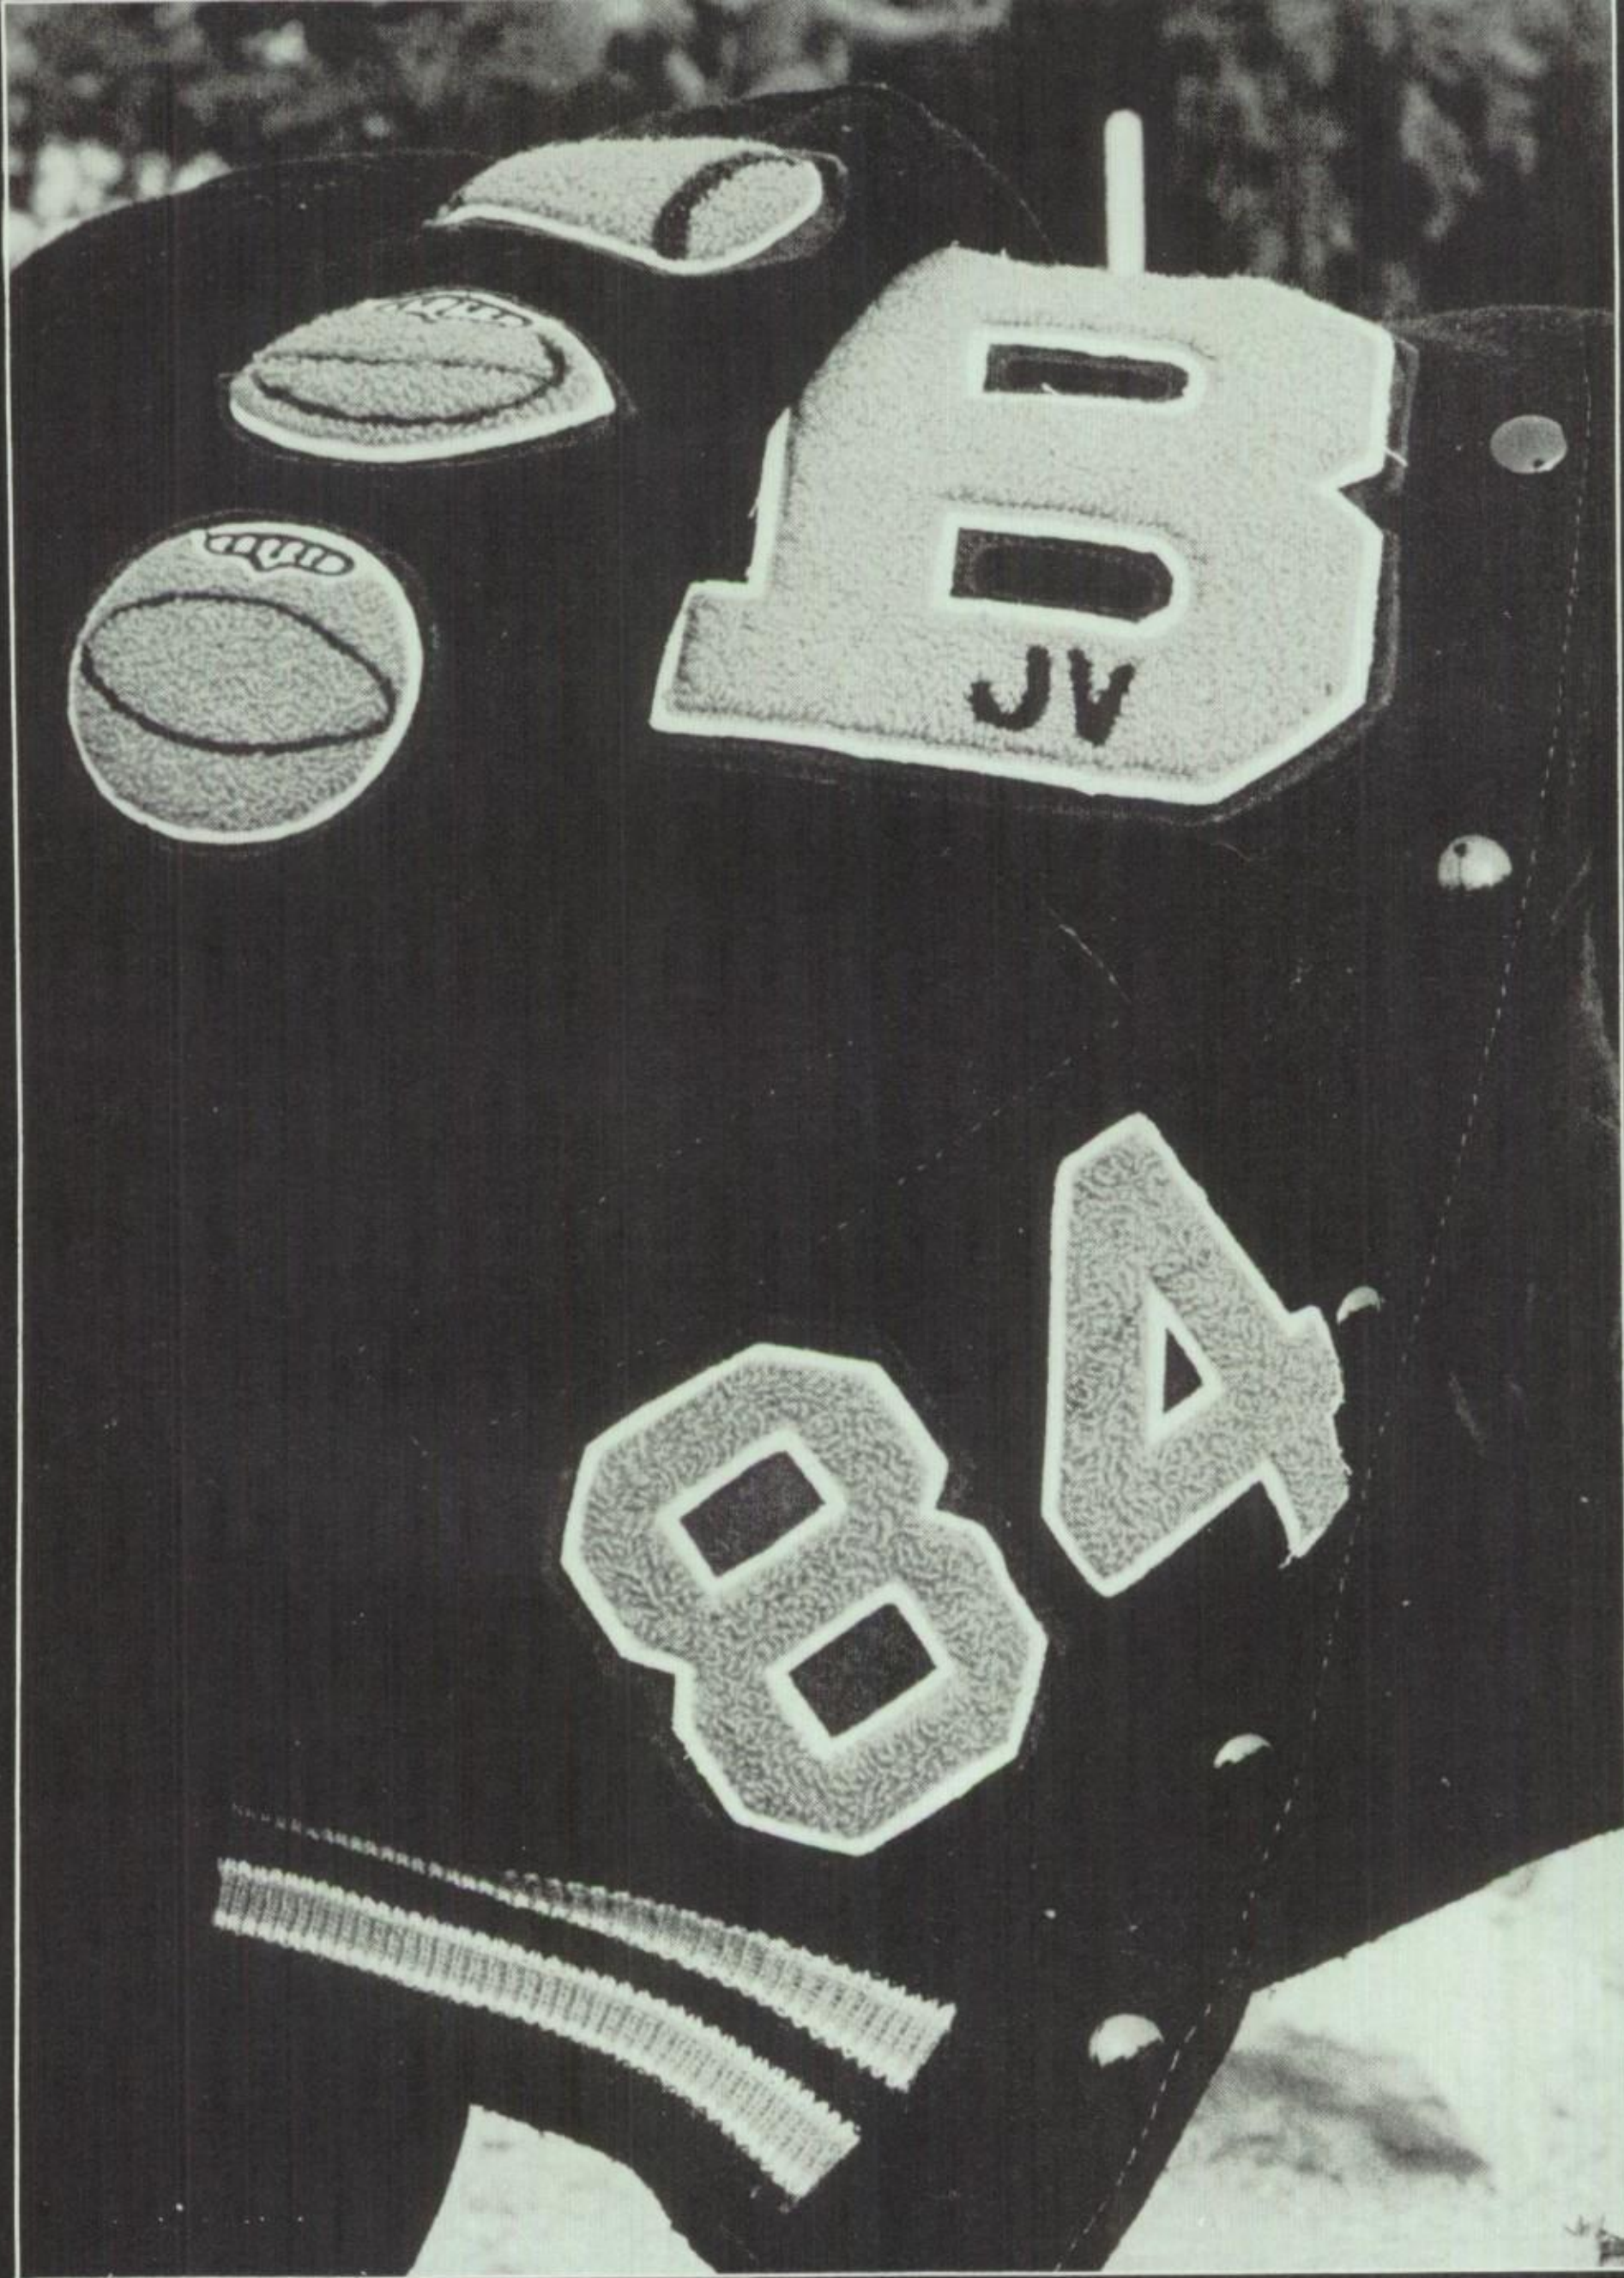

Browne	7	0	7	0-14
McClintock	14	7	7	14-42

Browne's fourth trip to the semifinals was a disappointing one. The team couldn't seem to get going as the McClintock Chargers cruised to a 42-14 win.

The game started out on a good note with a Bruin touchdown. On the opening kickoff, Jason Wilhite took a handoff from Newell Randon on a reverse at the Browne 10-yard line and ran 66 yards to the McClintock 24. Seven plays later, Mark Tressler plowed through the Charger line into the end zone from the two on a fourth-and-goal situation.

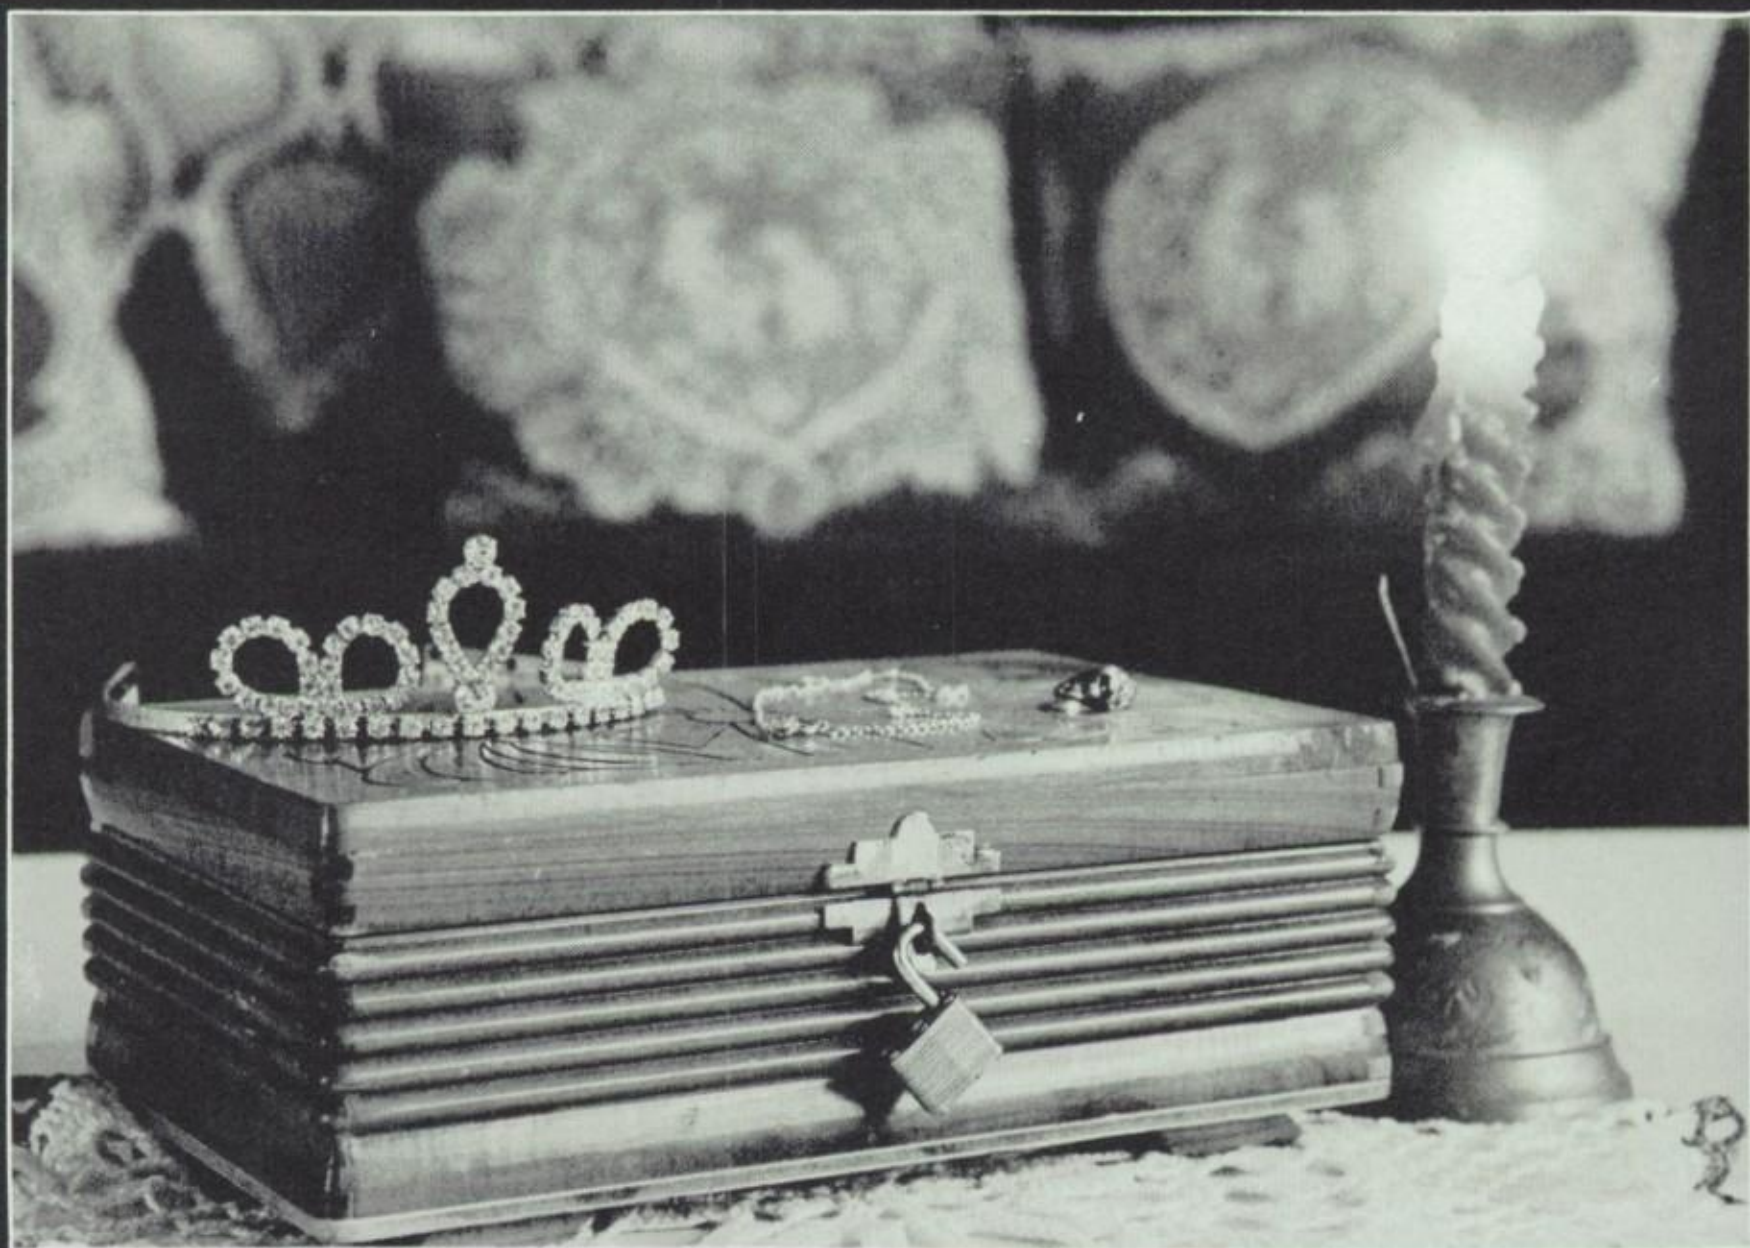

Browne's only other score came on a 4 yard TD run by Lenny Johnson in the third quarter.

Quill and Scroll members often have to forfeit their personal time in order to meet an important deadline. Their journalistic talent and hard work is shown in the quality of both publications.

Talented Bruins capture

The Trevor Browne Varsity Football team ended their regular season with another outstanding record. Their 5-league record made them the Metro B League champion and their overall nine wins and only one loss helped them achieve the second place ranking going into the playoffs.

In ten games the Bruin offense rolled up almost 2900 yards total offense, 2000 of that on the ground. The team averaged 22.7 points per game while holding their opponent to less than 12.

Browne's rushing game was lead by Mark Tressler and Lenny Johnson. Tressler ran for a total of over 1000 yards and an average of 5.8 yards per carry. Johnson gained 600 yards in 124 carries.

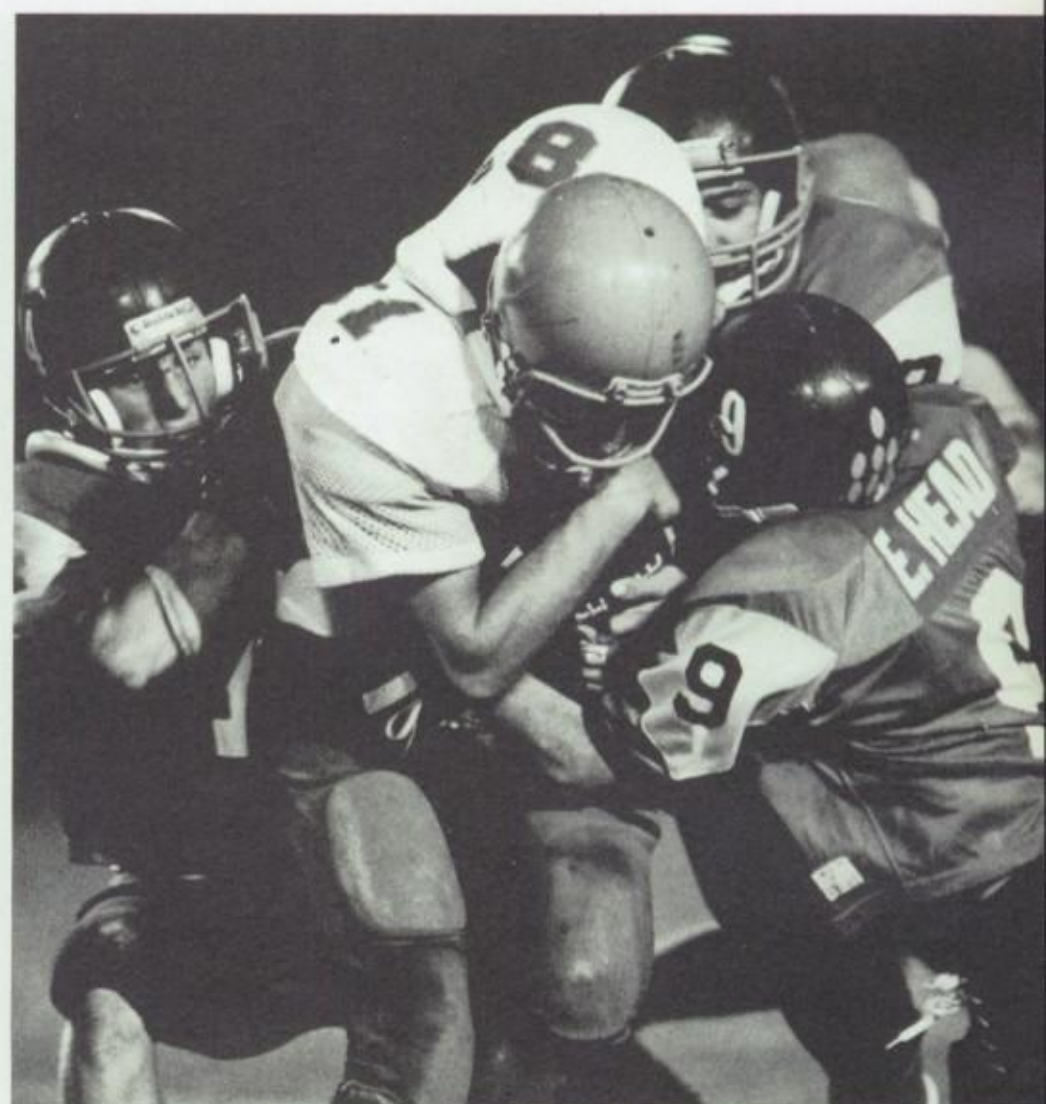

On the passing end David Nash threw for 900 yards with a 17.8 yards per completion average. Robert Halley served as his main target. He gathered over 500 yards and averaged 28.9 yards per catch.

Ray Federico stood out on defense with seven blocked punts and three blocked PAT's.

The team took its sixth consecutive trip to the state playoffs where they succeeded into the semifinals for the fourth straight year. The Bruin dominance slipped however and the McClintock Chargers came out victorious.

The Junior Varsity Football team bounced back from last year's losing season to end with a 6-2 record this year.

Considering that most of the players were sophomores it was quite a feat to turn the team around. However, a lot of talent guided the team to a great season overall.

The Freshmen Football team ended their season with a 3-5 record.

The teams outstanding players were: offense—Joel Sing and Mike Binam, defense—Chris Oless, Jack Muterspaugh, Jim Passarelli and Robert Walton.

The players constantly played good ball and the coaches are looking forward to a very talented junior varsity next year.

Young team has disappointing

The Trevor Browne Varsity Volleyball team experienced its first disappointing season this year. In spite of a couple of bright spots the Bruins couldn't quite get it all together.

However, the Bruins are a relatively young team and this year gave many players a chance to improve. Next year six players will be returning and there is a talented group of freshmen and junior varsity players clamouring to move up.

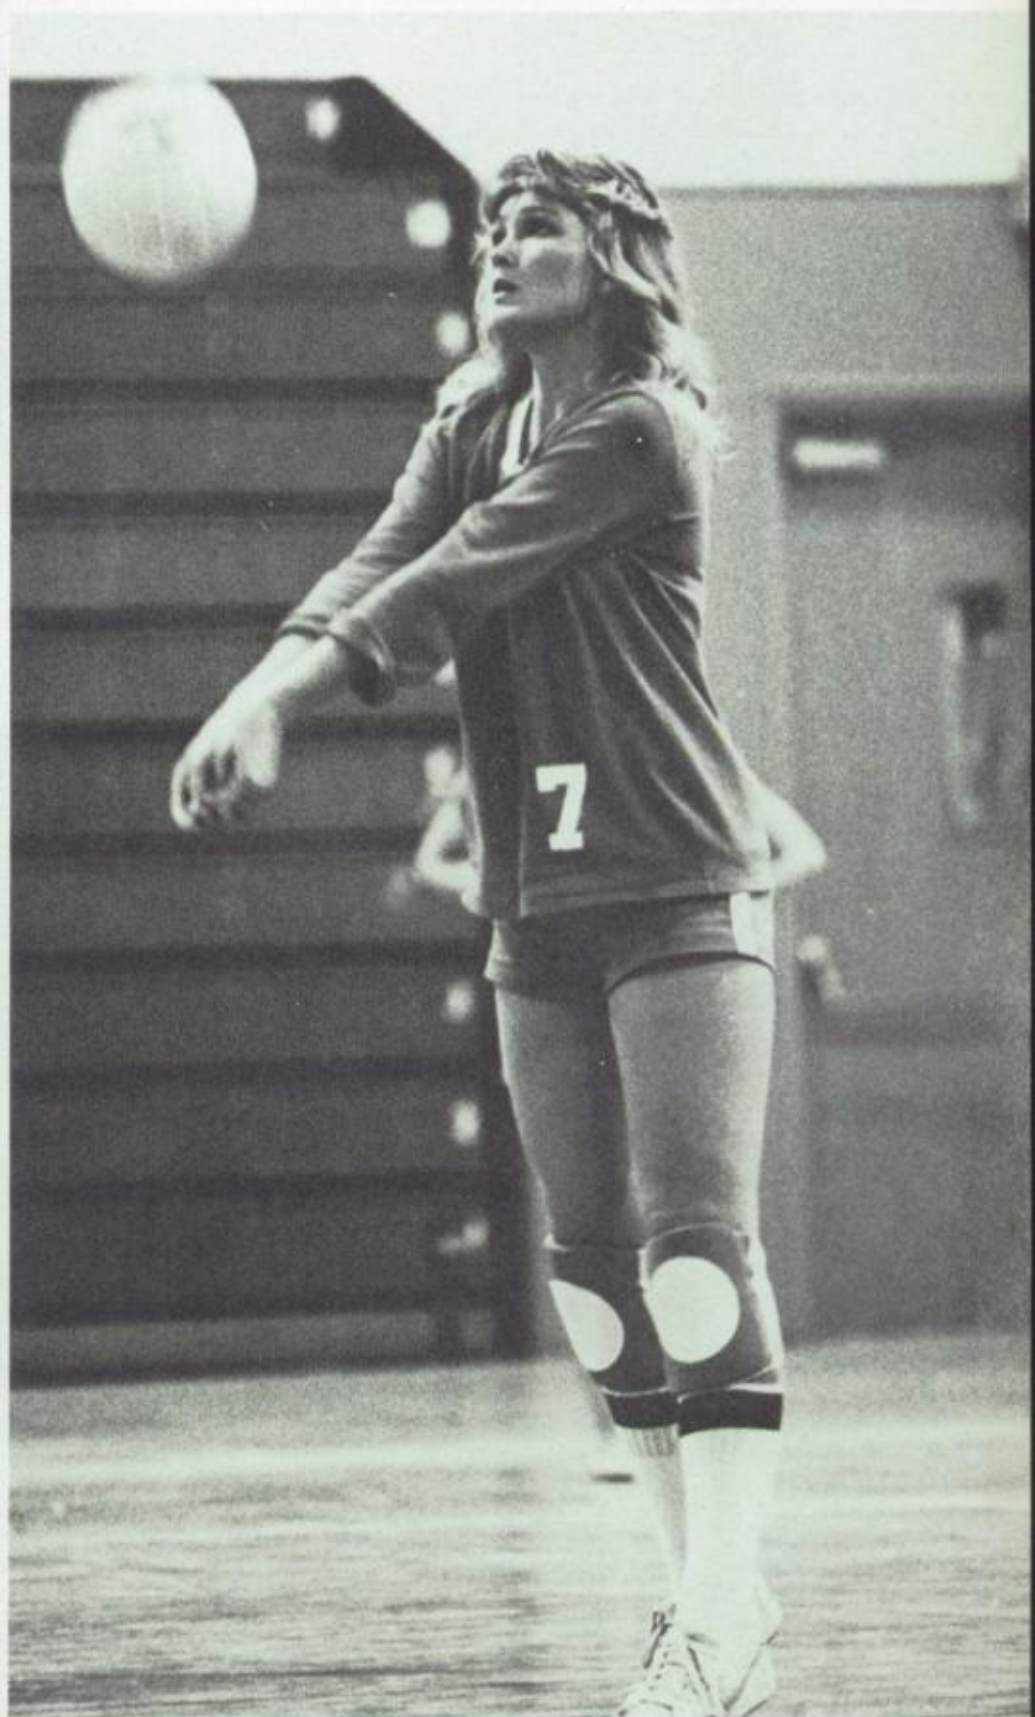

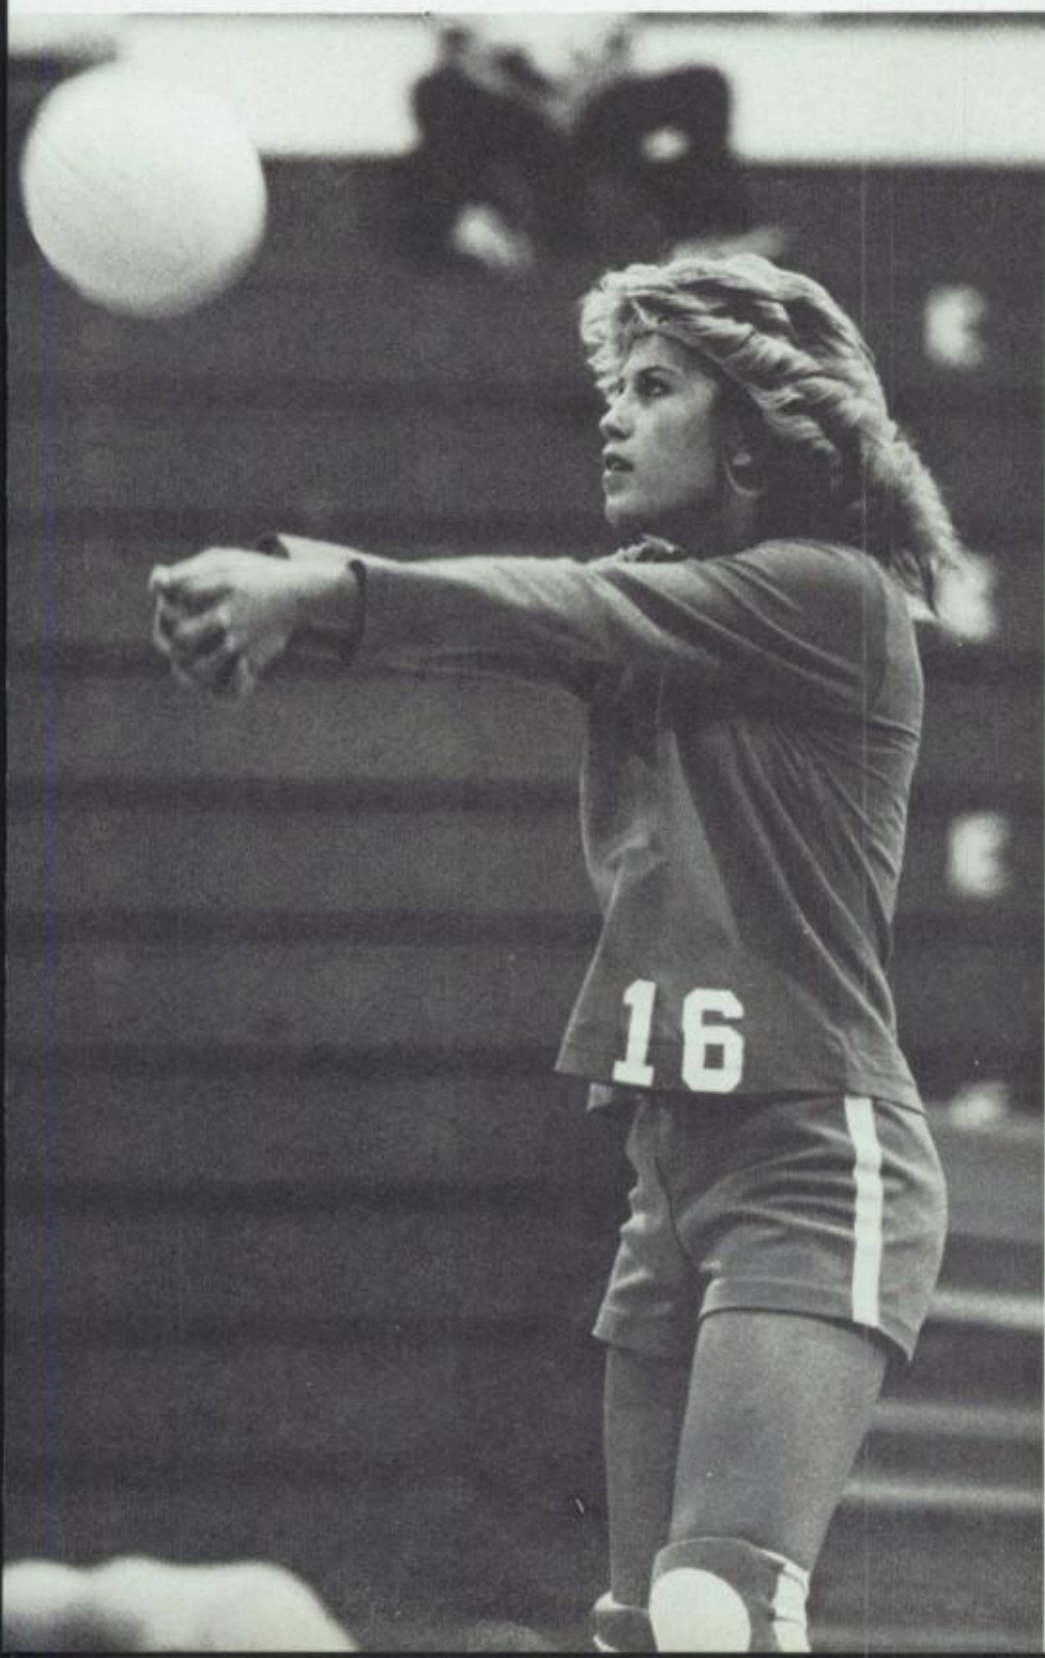

Mrs. Mass, not one for dwelling on the past, will be looking forward to the 1984-85 season when she hopes to put her team back in the winning circle.

JV ends with fair season

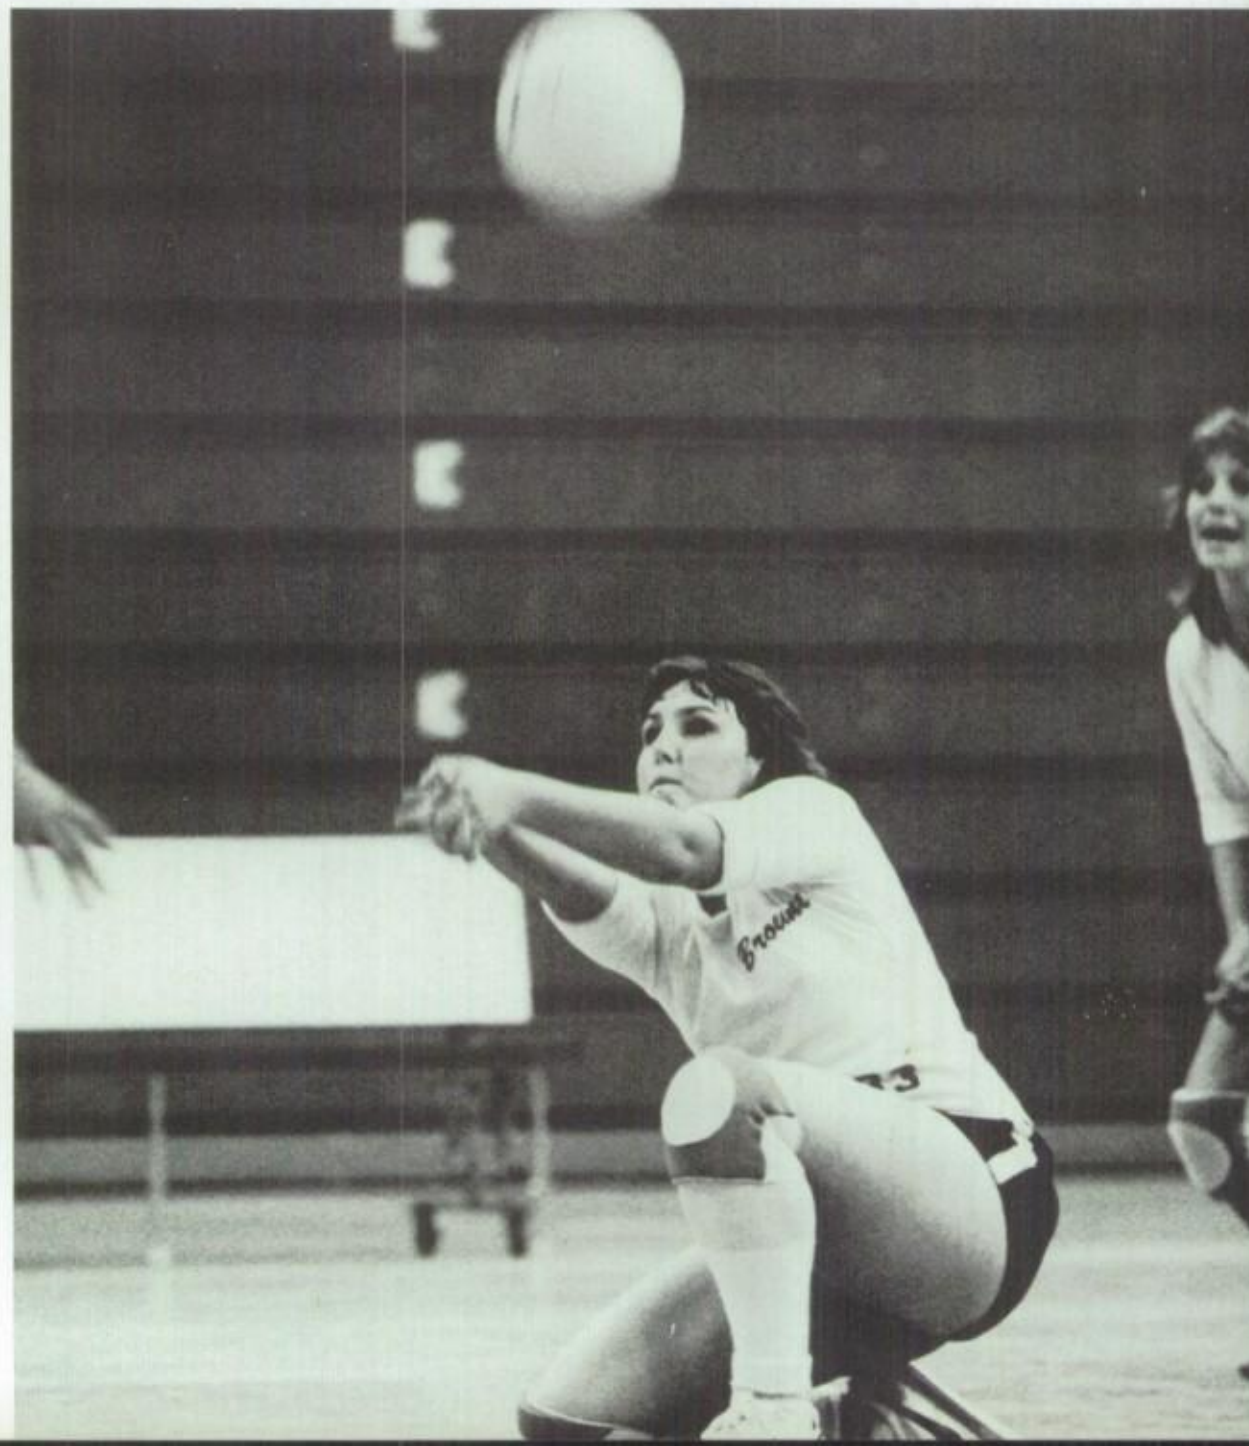

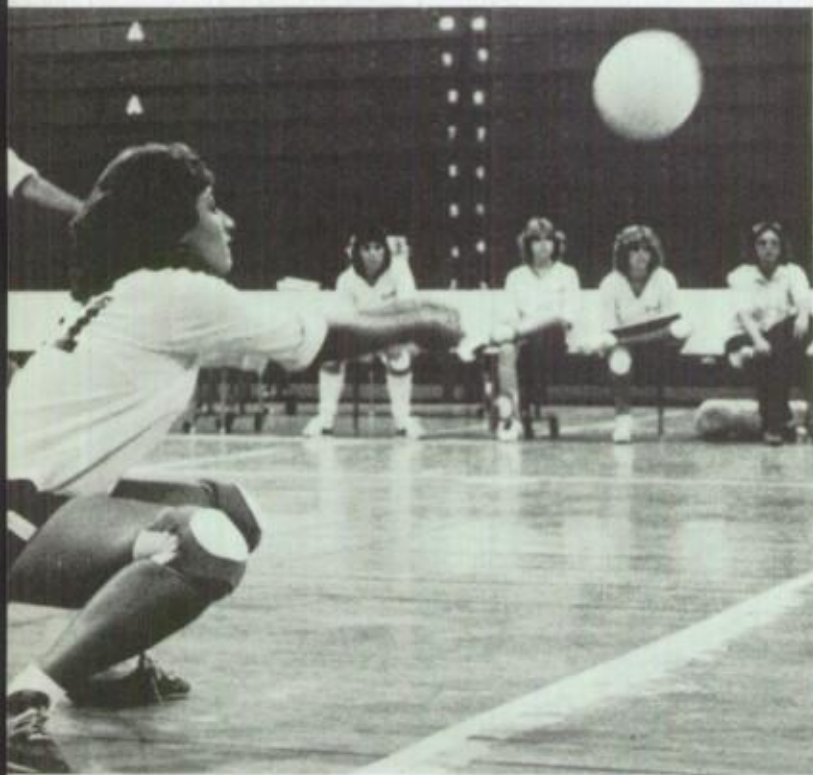

This year's Junior Varsity Volleyball team had a fair season. They ended with a record of six wins and six losses.

The returning players, Michelle Hollman (Captain), Tony Mahlman (Co-Captain) and Lisa McReynolds, contributed their effort to the team.

Coached under Bev Johnson the team tried their best. With many talented players they hope for a better season next year.

The Fall of 1983 represented a record setting season for the Trevor Browne Bruins Freshman Volleyball Team. Through intense dedication and constant sacrifice, these ten young ladies produced the first undefeated season for freshman volleyball here at Browne. Practicing everyday during the early morning hours eventually paid off when the girls finished their season with an eleven wins and no losses season.

Receiving awards for the freshman were Cynthia Hamilton (Most Valuable Player), Charmane Polmanteer (Spark Plug), and Pat Quinones (Most Improved).

Boys and Girls Golf end seasons

This year's Boys Golf team with only two returning lettermen finished the season a surprising fifth place in the divisional tournament.

Lead by senior Mike Kuhlin, the team's most valuable player, they moved from seventh the first day and finished fifth. They missed qualifying for State by only three strokes.

Solid performances were turned in by Keith Pekau, Donnie Kersiek, Dan Larson and Dean Donovan. Other members of the team are Mike Caputo, Lee Caputo, Sean Green, Bob Briggs, John Clements and Devin Samuelson.

Mr. Goto enjoyed coaching this year's team because they never gave up and continued to improve throughout the season.

with outstanding results

This year only two schools in the Phoenix Union High School District, Trevor Browne and Camelback, had girls golf teams. Browne defeated Camelback and competed with teams from Mesa, Tempe and Yuma. The team, coached by Fred Hanley, worked hard to become one of ten teams to go to the state championships.

Team Captain Debbie Tooms finished the season in the top half of all players in the state. Diane Pekau and Annette Slack also finished well at State.

The team played in two matches every week during the season. The pros at Maryvale Golf Course, their home course, were extremely helpful in training the girls.

Bruin Varsity Badminton

Trevor Browne's Varsity Badminton team had its first winning season this year. The team won eight and lost only four. The Junior Varsity team had a 7-5 record.

At the Browne Invitionals they placed second out of twelve teams. Tammy Turner and Becca Dierks took second place in doubles and Dawn Archeletta and Vanessa Keene took third.

Browne finished second in their division. Turner and Dierks also placed second at divisionals and Archeletta and Keene placed third.

The two doubles teams that placed in divisionals qualified for State. The team placed tenth out of seventeen schools.

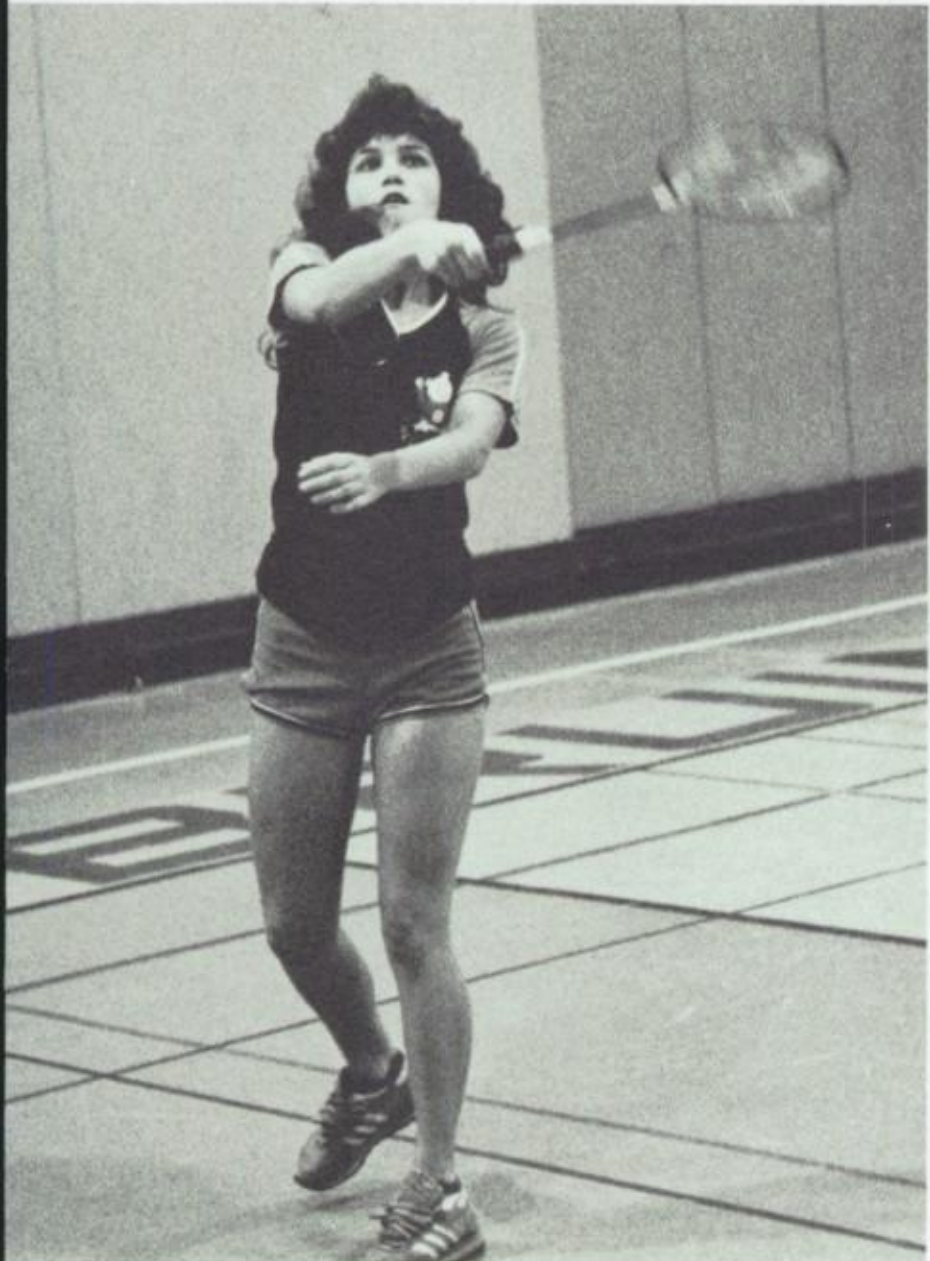

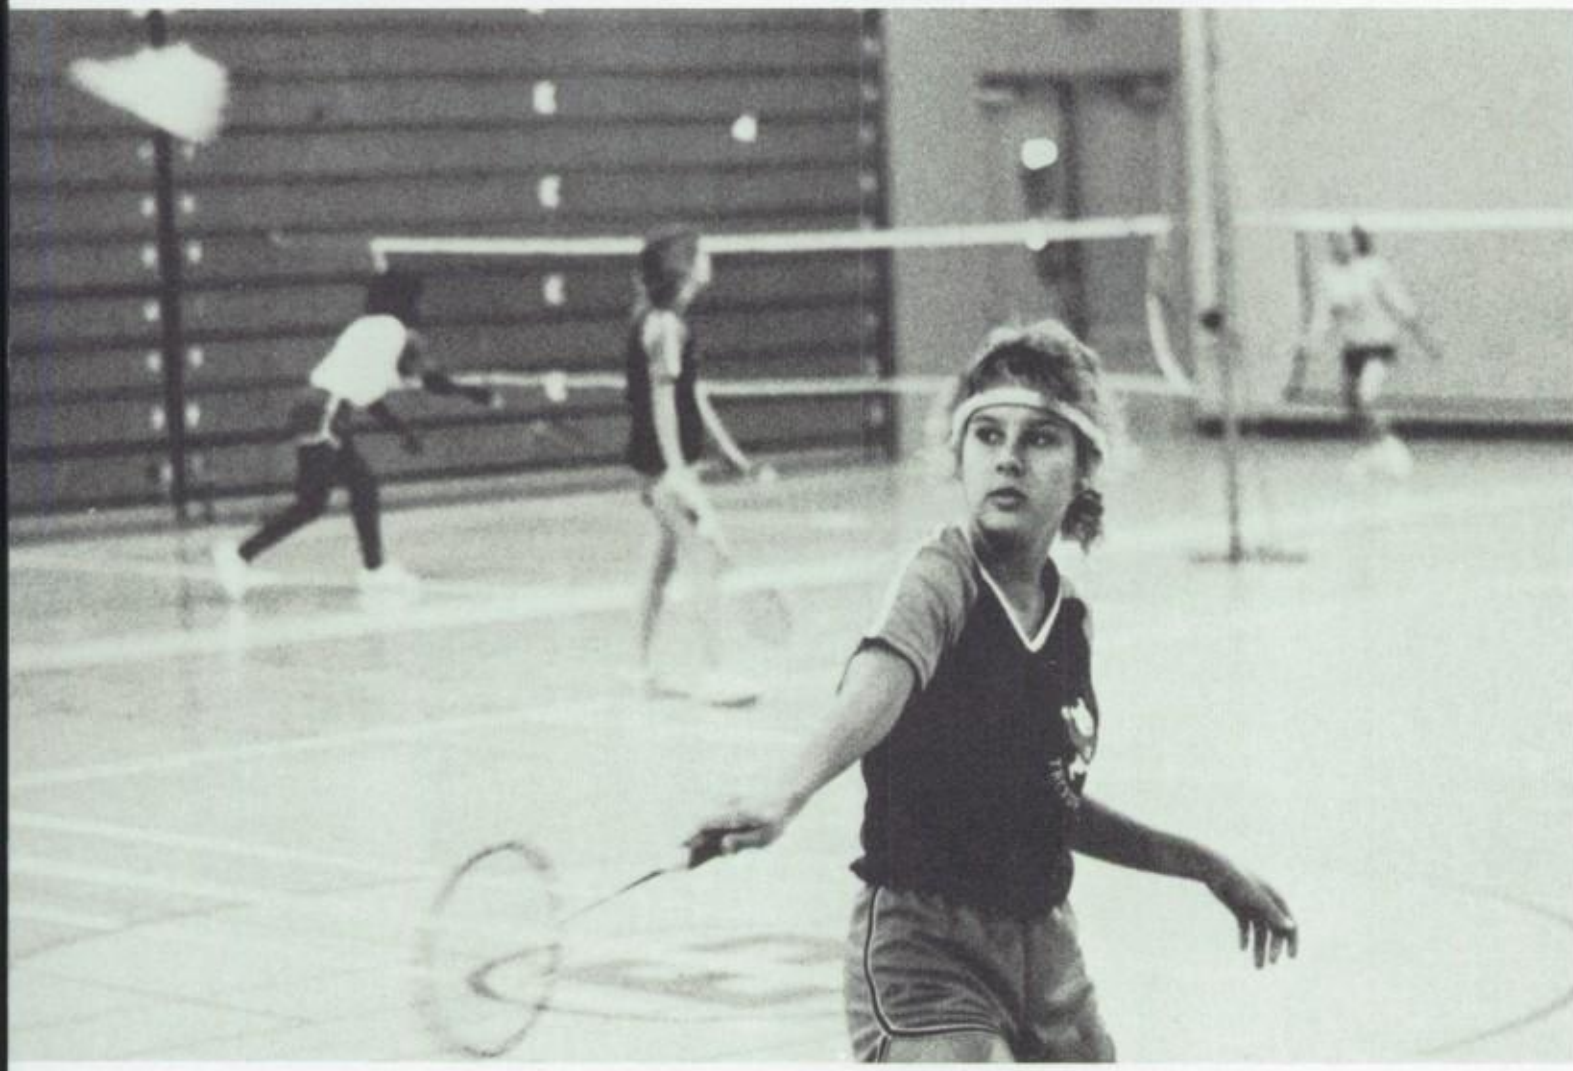

With all players returning next year the team is looking forward to a very successful season.

Freshmen Tennis

1983 brought the return of Freshmen Tennis To Browne. The team consisted of three boys and three girls.

The team served its purpose of teaching the players the fundamentals of the game and preparing them for playing varsity and junior varsity at the end of the year.

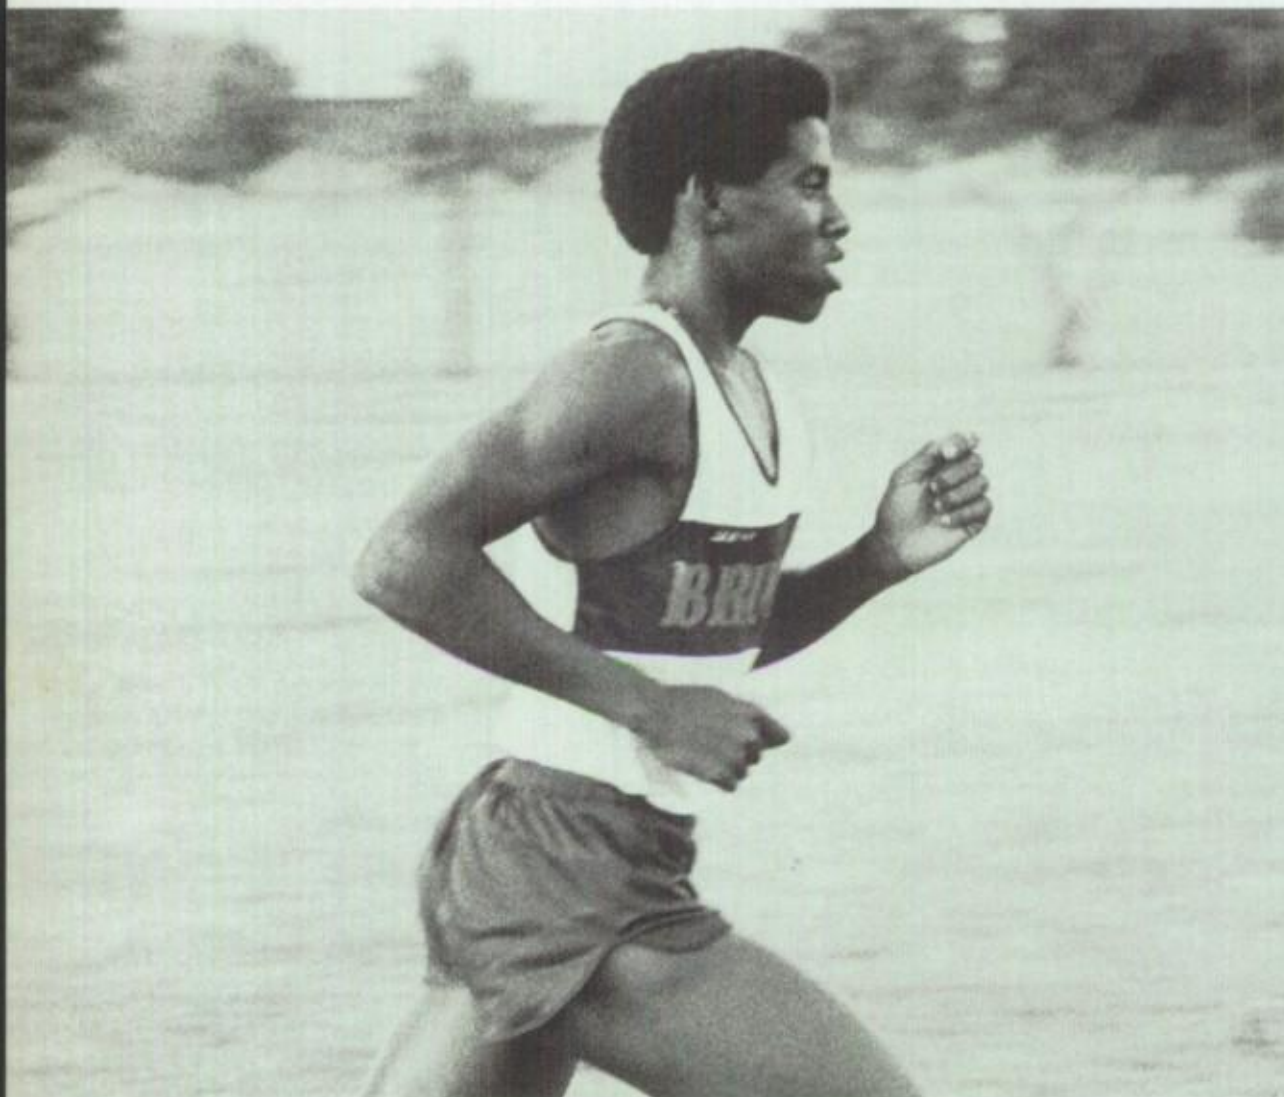

Injuries and apathy

The Trevor Browne Boys Cross Country Team had an overall disappointing season with injuries and illnesses coming at the wrong times. The loss of Lee Draper at the start of the season to a back injury exemplified a season that could have been. The team did manage to finish with a 4-7 record, however.

The top runners on the team were seniors Robbie Bates, Todd Brown, and John Patterson. The promising runners returning next year include Toby Campbell, Bret Kaiser, Dale Rogers, Scott Miller and Bobby Brady.

plague Cross Country

The Girls Cross Country Team had a disappointing 1-5 season, mostly due to problems getting enough girls together to make up a team. Those who did go out worked very hard at their training.

Freshman Dana Wood looks to have a promising future.

Bruins end streak in win against rival Panthers

Although this year's Varsity Basketball Team had a losing season, they did manage to break the forty-one game losing streak which was the third longest in State history. Their only victory was against the Maryvale Panthers, 79-65. The audience attendance at the games this year was much better than the last two years. Outstanding Players were David Nash and Newell Randon. This year's team was coached by first-year Bruin coach Mike DeBenedetto. Next year's basketball season will be much more rewarding.

He felt that this was accomplished, as even though they had a losing season, everybody kept playing their best and no one gave up.

Billy Black was the team's leading scorer and Hector Cooper was a very consistent ball handler and the team's floor leader. Although these two shined, everyone on the team played outstandingly.

Young team prepares

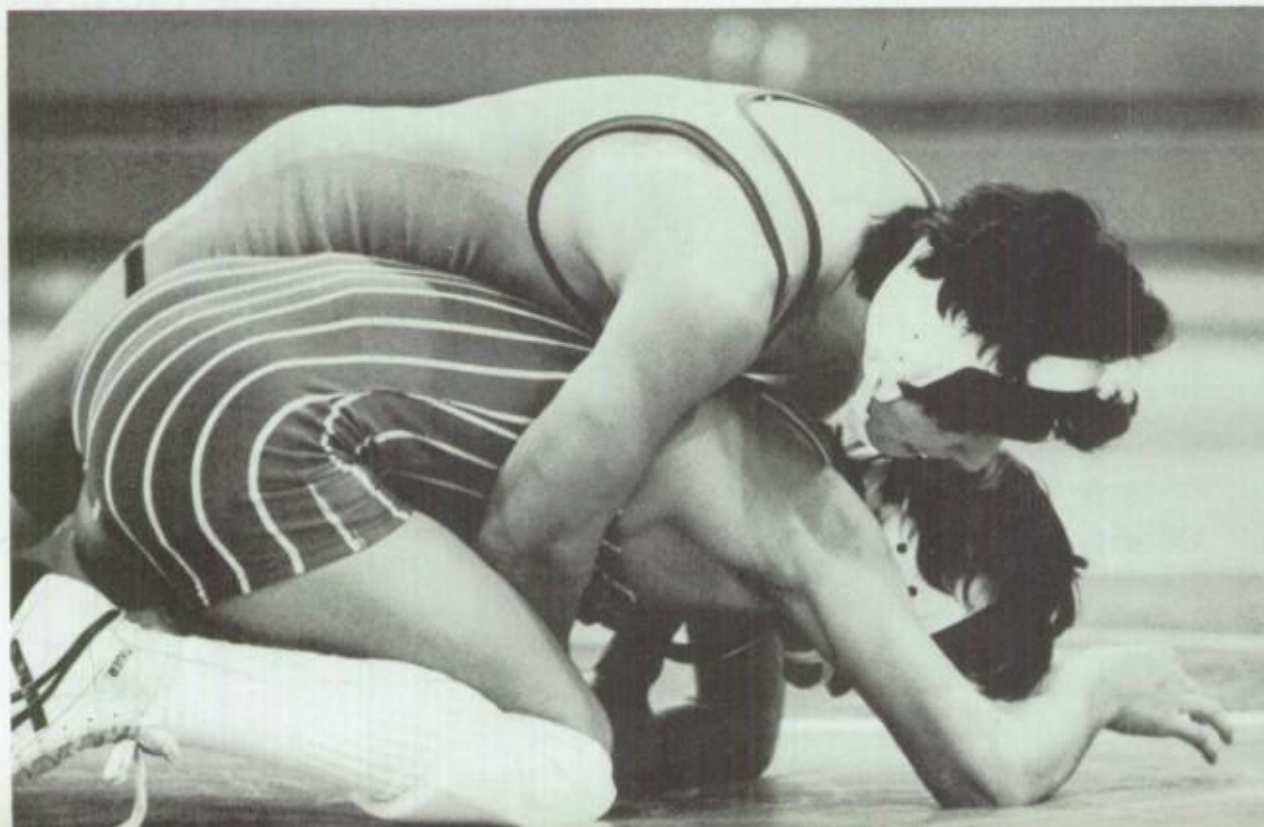

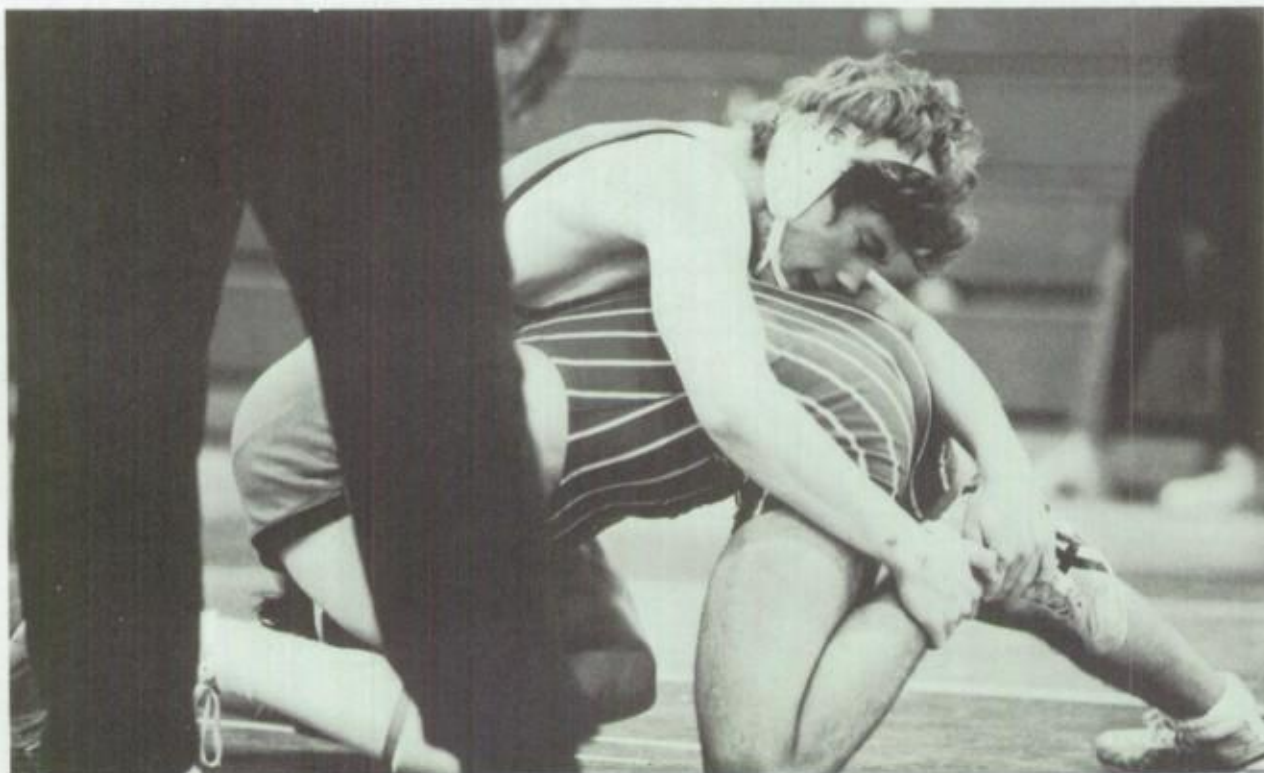

The Trevor Browne Varsity Wrestlers had a good season. They were 5-5 in season matches and 5-3 in league. They were better in the season than in league. Due to inexperienced wrestlers and injuries, the team didn't do as well as expected.

Being a Cheerleader means more than just smiling pretty, jumping up and down acting silly, and entertaining. It's hard work and dedication.

The 1983-84 Cheer Line put in their share of long hours by starting practice in the hot days of summer to get ready for camp. But, long hours pay off.

The Cheer Line attended a cheer camp at Embry Riddle Aeronautical University. Among the awards they won were: eleven ribbons, Award for Excellence, spirit frisbee, spirit firecracker and they placed second in Grand Champion Competition.

Taking the ideas and cheers learned from camp back to Trevor Browne, this year's Cheerleaders raised the Bruin spirit.

A new beginning

This year's Pom Line was off to a new start. With only one Pom returning, eight new Poms and a new sponsor, many things had to be learned. But learn they did. Practicing, sweating and working hard lead them to a successful season.

This summer the Poms attended a pom camp at ASU. They learned many dances and spirit ideas. They also won a spirit stick.

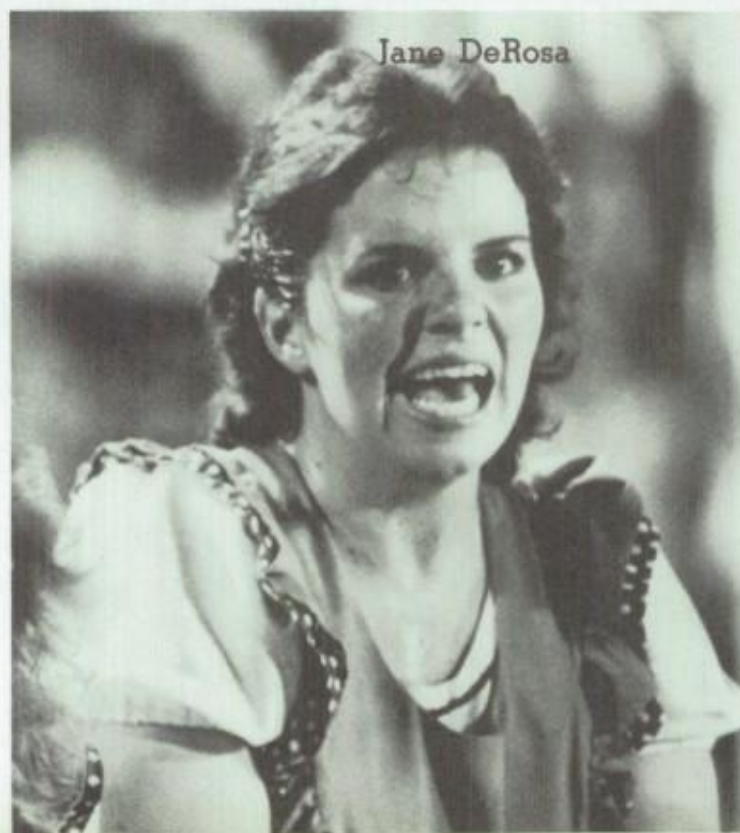

The Poms raised money by selling suntan lotion and having carwashes during the summer. Wearing brown and orange on Fridays was one of the many ways they showed their spirit towards Trevor Browne.

Marching Band does more

The Trevor Browne Marching Band was the group of dedicated musicians who performed at Browne's football games and pep assemblies. When they weren't playing their instruments they were cheering on the team.

The orchestra held five concerts and participated in two major festival events.

The first year of the Pee Wee Herman Fan Club turned out to be a surprising success. The club itself was started late in the year but that did not stop the members from seeing their idol. The club went to many comedy shops and also saw Pee Wee while he was in Phoenix. They also made several trips to Las Vegas and Lake Tahoe, raising money by selling "squirting ties", and shoplifting.

The club also spent an exciting evening at the Nevada State Jail. Their night in jail came about because they were jaywalking to where Pee Wee was appearing live. Pee Wee also made a surprise visit to the Trevor Browne campus after a few members broke into his hotel room. He seemed to enjoy his day at school, his manager, however, was a bit annoyed.

Even though they are not affiliated with the national Pee Wee Herman Fan Club, they still feel that they are a vital part of Pee Wee's life. Next year's club is planning to go to New York to see Pee Wee perform on Saturday Night Live.

The Interact Club is an international service organization dedicated to the betterment of school and community. There are approximately four thousand Interact Clubs worldwide, with branches in every free country.

The Trevor Browne Interact Club, sponsored by Mr. Browning, participates in many projects, community services, and fund raisers every year.

This year the club held a candy sale in honor of Randy Hickman, with funds being contributed towards the purchase of land for a three million dollar life-care facility.

The annual blood drive is another important project that the Interact Club sponsors. In October eighty pints of blood were donated. Another blood drive was held in April.

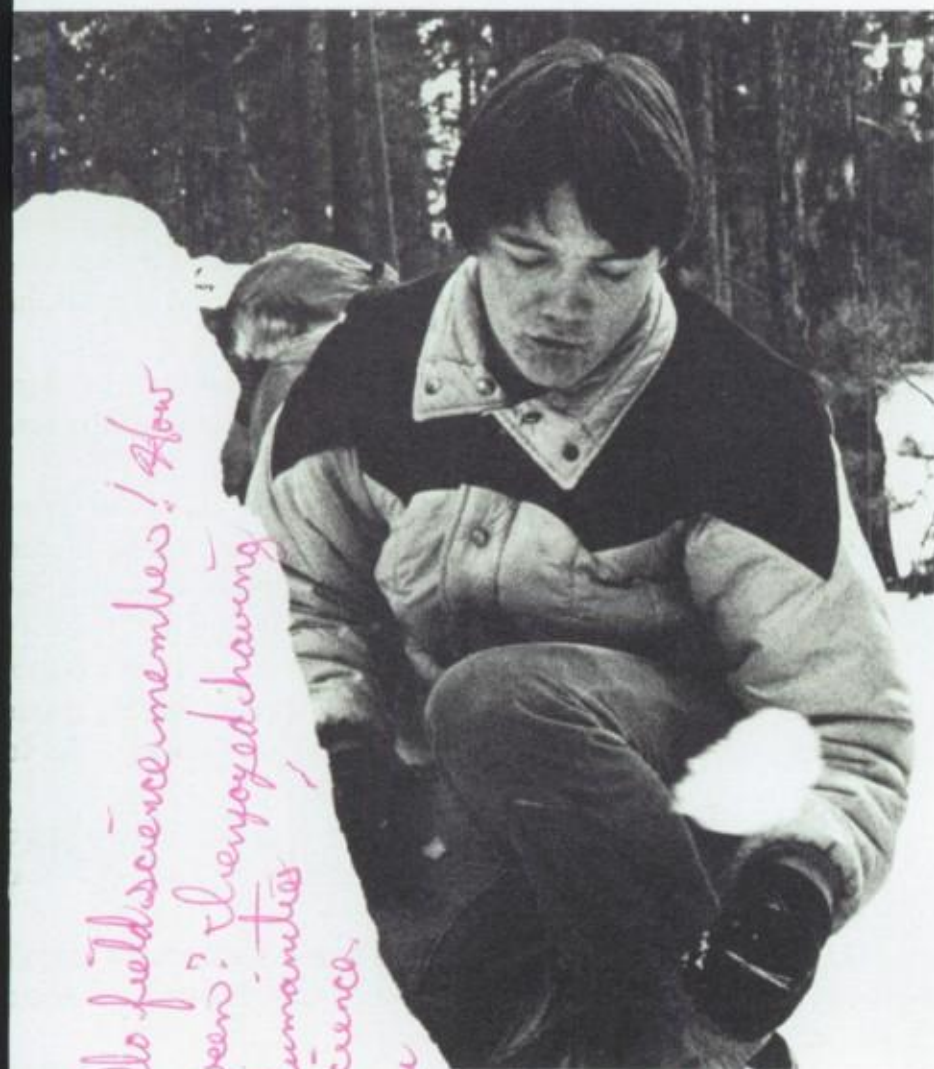

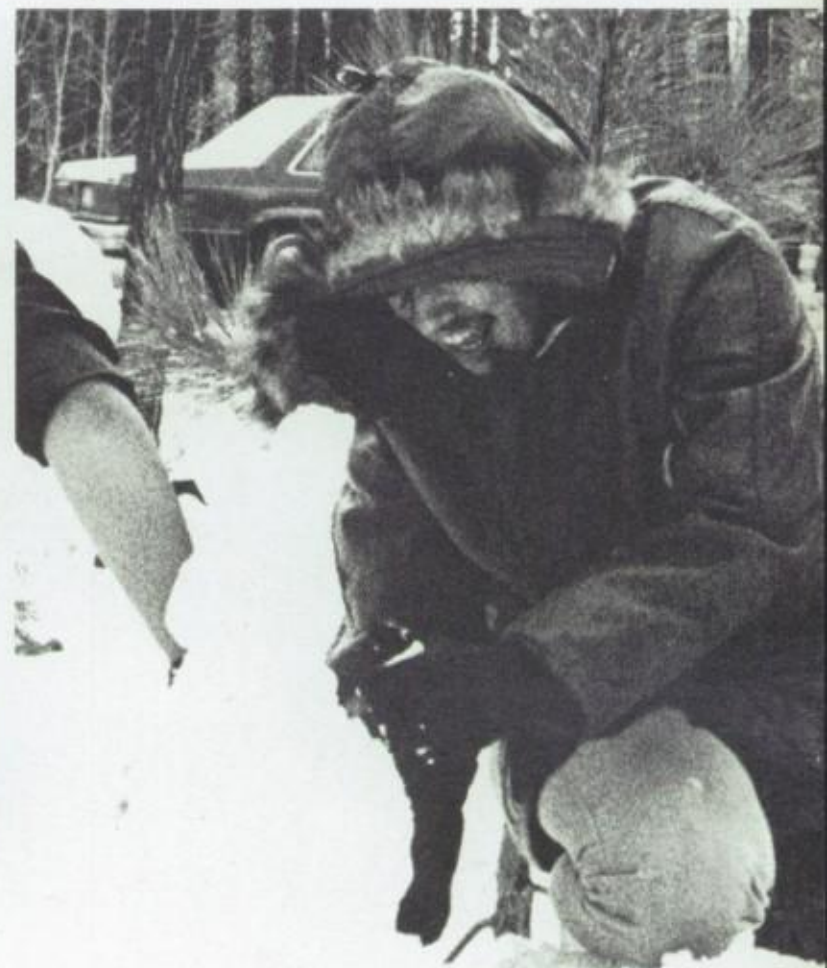

In March the club sponsored a gong show and donated the money raised to the Amazon hospital-board Esperanza.

Also during the year the club went Christmas caroling, visited nursing homes, and held canned food drives.

The Field Science Club explored and studied much of Arizona this year. The members examined many different areas of the state. The club, mainly interested in biology and geology, collected many specimens for the Science Department. The specimens were used to help the members and are now on permanent display.

The club is the only science club representing Browne. They held many activities to raise money for their trips, most of which were one day, short distance, weekend trips.

In early October the club went to the San Francisco Peaks area. They visited Payson and Kohls Ranch during winter recess. They also visited Sabino Canyon, Tonto National Forest and the Apache Trail second semester. In May they went for an overnight trip to Greer.

The club was sponsored by Ms. Burton and Mr. LaRue. The two sponsors did a lot of teaching in the field. The club had about fifteen members, all of which voted on where to go and what to do.

Homecoming was held earlier than usual this year so student government met before school and began to start planning it and other major yearly events. They planned spirit weeks, assemblies, dress up days, the Christmas Formal, the Prom, the senior slide show, Springfest, and other various activities.

In order to raise funds for all those events they sold hats, bumper stickers, spirit shakers, cups and carnations. They also worked in the concession stand at home football games.

for leadership training

The purpose of the Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps is to develop young minds for leadership training. The cadets' training includes extra curricular activities such as Male and Female teams which perform in competition representing Browne, Rangers adventure training, Color Guard which performs at various ceremonies, and performing in rifle matches. Besides leadership development, the cadets learn first aid, map reading, history, M16 rifle, and much more.

This year's ROTC kept itself very busy performing, learning and helping others. They raised $610.34 in the Gompers collection in October and collected over 6,000 pounds of canned food in Browne's Can Drive. The Rangers went on a trip to Reeves Ranch in October and all the cadets visited Fort Bliss in April. They placed sixth in the Veterans' Day Parade and the Drill Teams performed at the Brigade Drill Meet at Browne and the Black Jack Drill Meet at ASU. The cadets also demonstrated rappelling techniques down the Arts building in January.

Students search for quality in education

Students for Quality Education, an organization created last year at Browne, is dedicated to protecting the rights of students in the Phoenix Union High School District.

SQE members are always present at board meetings to find out what might affect the quality of education in the district. They are also helpful in letting the board know what the students think and feel.

If any student is curious as to what changes are coming about in our school and our district all they need do is consult SQE.

Guild brings bizarre world to Trevor Browne

The Guild is a new club at Trevor Browne. It was created by Mr. Black, social studies teacher, several years ago at Maryvale High School and in a short time attracted considerable attention due to its outlandish activities. In one year alone, the club organized an assembly to promote school unity and understanding against student violence. Strange and unusual art by members of The Guild was featured in the library display windows at Maryvale, statues of famous people in history along with flags, helmets, miniature battles of famous historical clashes, and military uniforms of the past were displayed for the entire Phoenix Union High School District to observe.

The Guild consists of several mini-chapters and members may if they wish engage in any, all, or none of the activities proposed by the various mini-chapters. The mini-chapters consist of The Arts & Crafts Guild which displays works of arts & crafts made by the members, The Guild Little Magazine which will feature thoughts, opinions, poetry, writings, etc. By members and The Bizarre Guild which encourages independent thought, creativity, and sheer zaniness through "secret missions" known only to members of the club.

Close-Up is an organization designed for helping students learn about their government "close-up."

The Close-Up members spent most of the year raising funds for their trip to Washington DC in April. Some of their fund raisers included candy and bake sales. They also participated in a bike-a-thon in January.

In preparation for their April trip the students attended an Arizona Close-Up workshop at West High School. In March the group visited the State Capitol to become familiar with it.

In Washington the students toured the city and spent an entire day at the Capitol Building. They learned about our government first hand. They also got to meet the representatives from Arizona.

Cooperative Office Education is a work study program for seniors who have a career interest in office education. The program blends afternoon on-the-job training with a related class. Students receive one credit for the class and two credits for working. The student gains occupational guidance, saleable job skills, wholesome work attitudes and habits, and develops a feeling of self worth and achievement.

As a part of the total program, these students also make up the COE Club whose main function is to raise funds for the end-of-the year banquet to honor their employers. Other fun outings and a three day trip to California were planned.

This year's Trevor Browne French Club has had a wide variety of experiences to obtain better knowledge of the French people and their customs. Mrs. Harthun took her club to a French restaurant, the art museum, and even treated them to a French dinner in her home.

This gave the students an opportunity to taste the traditional French food and study the unique French art work.

This club served a very good purpose. It gave the students a better understanding of the French culture.

Politics and peace guide Model UN delegates

The Model United Nations is a club which provides students with the opportunity to learn about the practices of the United Nations. The club gives its members experience in political decision making processes and helps them to better understand the problems, issues and conflicts that other countries face.

In an annual event, held at the University of Arizona, clubs from each high school in Arizona come together to form a mock United Nations session. Each club researches and represents one or more countries. At the conference, the clubs try to vote and function as their adopted countries would.

This year's twenty-six member club, sponsored by Kathleen Barraza and Halldor Hjalmarson, represented France, Finland, Panama and Gambia at the U of A conference.

Staff learns journalism facts

The Bear Facts staff is responsible for keeping the student body informed about the school and community through the production of their newspaper.

The students in the newspaper class must do everything that is necessary to print the paper. This includes taking the pictures, writing the stories, typesetting the copy, selling ads, and pasting down the layouts. Bear Fact's stories stretch from sports and features to editorial and hard news.

This year was a building and training one for the staff. Under editors Robin McKinley and Chris Pirkey and advisor Mrs. Ranck, the class learned most of the fundamentals of journalism and newspaper technique.

The Lair staff is responsible for the production and accuracy of Trevor Browne's yearbook. The students must do all the layouts, copy and pictures themselves.

This year the Lair continued its photographic excellence. It was also larger and included more color than the books of the past few years.

The staff members had to contend with a tempermental editor, but still managed to keep their sanity and got the work done.

Academics

Moten proud of successful year

Dear Students,

This has been a banner year for Trevor G. Browne High School. You have made all the difference.

Numerous teachers have given you many, many reviews for the outstanding quality of academic achievement you have attained this year. They have indicated that motivation levels have been high, and that you have been working hard. That is as it should be because the school's main goal is to see to it that you are a different person when you leave here than you were when you came. We are going to do that by giving you an education. We expect that education to help you grow. However, the most important thing is not the education, but in your discovery of its meaning. It is what you do with the education that makes the difference. No amount of education is worth much if it is not used. We are hoping that you will use it, both for yourself, and for your world.

In order for you to get the knowledge and skills you need, you must learn to seek out resources. You must be awake, aware, and action oriented. You must learn to be persistent, not give up easily if you want something. The things you want are moving targets. You will have to keep aiming at them until you hit the bull's eye. Above all, you can't expect anyone else to see you as ten feet tall, if you see yourself as three feet tall.

We are proud of you and your success. Many wonderful things have happened this year. Among them has been the building of greater student responsibility which, in turn has helped the maturation of many students. This is one of the reasons that we can label this year a BIG, BIG, success.

Assistant Principals help lead

John O'Connell

Another year draws toward a new beginning—especially for our graduating seniors.

Each year I am more impressed at the quality of our Trevor Browne students—their attitudes, their behavior, and their successful achievements.

A new Trevor G. Browne is emerging. Others are beginning to recognize the quality of our students and the dedication of our staff.

We are seeking ways to reward excellence in the classroom and student commitment to learning.

Let us continue our search for excellence.

Jerome Siegel

The opportunity is yours at Trevor Browne High School. The opportunity to learn, to participate, to prepare, to meet new people. Your future is in your hands but the faculty and staff are here to assist you in every way possible. These can be some of the best years of your life (in preparing for your future) if you had or will take advantage of all that is offered at your school. Reach out and ask for assistance. My door is open to you!

Philip Berra

It has been a great pleasure to be here at Trevor Browne my first year. The students, teachers, and staff have been great to work with, and have helped me to adjust to Trevor Browne. I am looking forward to many more rewarding and satisfying years.

In order to provide students with a more solid background in traditional English studies, the requirements for these classes have steadily risen in the last few years. This year's graduating class was the first to be required to take four years of English. This is now required of all students. Because of this emphasis on traditional English, elective English classes such as Short Story and Mythology have become virtually obsolete.

Yearbook, Newspaper and Journalism, popular remaining electives, offer interesting ways for students to use and develop their English skills. Advanced Placement English provides challenges for the senior English student.

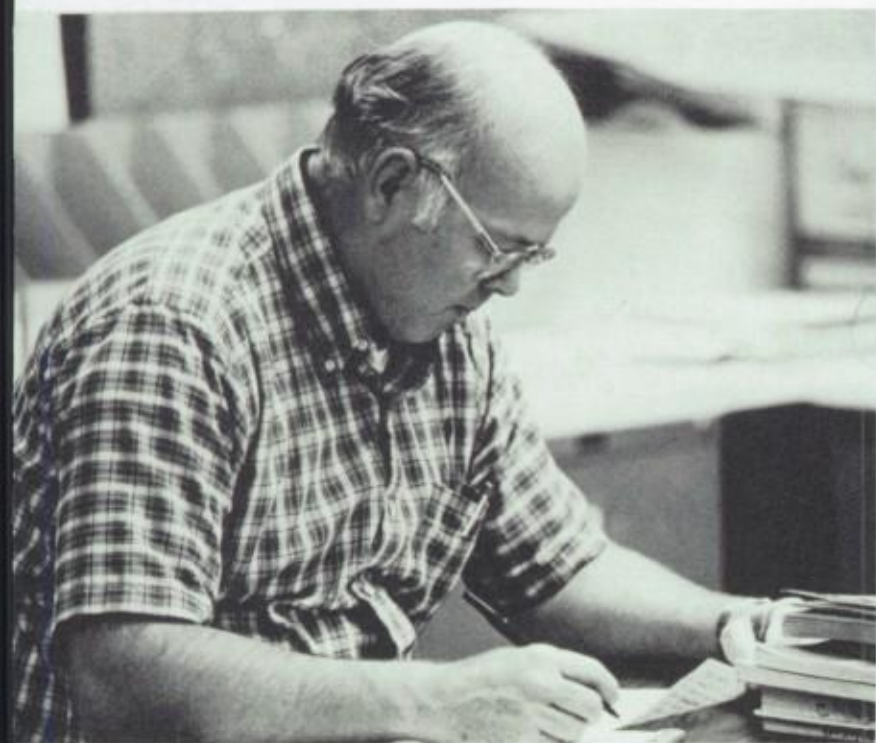

The English Department acquired one new English teacher, Mrs. Hyde, and two returning teachers, Mrs. Ranck and Mrs. Mooningham, this year.

Library

The Instructional Materials Center at Browne is dedicated to providing faculty and students with the information they need. Besides providing informational books, the library has a large selection of books that can be read for enjoyment, and also a well stacked magazine rack. Adjacent to the library is the Audio Visual Center, which provides classes with video taped materials and gives students the opportunity to learn about producing television programs and broadcasting through firsthand experience.

Exhibits of hobbies, crafts and collections are presented in the library whenever possible.

This year the library had a new circulation clerk, Miss Baldwin.

Teaching a new tongue

The Foreign Language Department offers students a chance to learn a different language. Knowing foreign languages can be very useful when traveling. Besides that, learning a new language is fun, and some colleges require that students can speak at least one language other than their own.

Our department at Trevor Browne offers two years of Spanish and German, and three years of French.

Being of sound mind and

I Tina Kemarly being of relatively sound mind and body, do hereby leave the trials and tribulations of Troupe 1009 to Cathy, Chad, Danny, Paula or whoever else is crazy enough to take them. I leave to Lori B. some good common sense. To Mark, some faith and some patience. Ayesha, I leave you a little tolerance for other people (we're not all that bad!) To Miss T., I leave a little good luck. To David and Lee the ability to not make everyone's life so miserable, I know it'll be rough! To Matt and Georgia I leave the possibility of becoming an upper classmen. Mike, I leave you the ability to graduate and to Eric some driving ability. Finally, to my little sissy Drada, I need to leave only the good times, and the talent for having fun. She's got everything else. Good luck T.G.B., you're gonna need it.

I Margaret (Garet) Maltby will to my brother, and sister; and ones to come to T.G.B., all the fun times they can have while passing all their classes. Make Mom and Dad proud of ya. To Munchkin and Muffy thanks for all the good times we shared. We had our ups, and our downs, but if it wasn't for you guys I wouldn't of made it this year. Thanks for being there when I needed a shoulder to cry on. To all my friends I love ya all, and thanks for everything. To Mrs. Dewberry thanks for my last year. I hope ya have more aids like me. I'll remember you always. To all the teachers I've had thanks for the good years. Last but not least, I want to thank my parents for 4 good years of high school, I love ya both. To everybody good luck in the future, may all your dreams come true. Long live T.G.B.

Love,
Midget "84"

I Kathleen De Gryse will to Wendy Floyd my white kitty and all the great times we had in Colorado. "Don't forget about Hawaii." May our memories live on! To Greg Vinas, a real sweetie, a dozen Snicker bars (remember 240 calories) to save for a rainy day. To Rachel, Brenda, Laurie, Rose and Sharon, thanks for all the memories. To Barbara Docken, thanks for all the talks. To Christina Prickett, the awesome and crazy weekends we had. Especially all the C.P.'s (Ha!Ha!). To Scottie "Joe Driver" Johnson, I'm sure you won't forget all the good times we had in Physics. "Just Right" weren't they! To Joe Bushong, thanks for being a true friend, To Ken Skehan, a pair of Levi's one size bigger! By the way Ken, which way to the beach? To my friends at T.G.B. I say goodbye, it's been real.

Keep Smiling
Kathleen De Cryse "84"

I Kathy Welsh of sound state and mind will. Michell French the ability to make spaghetti with Vince Neil every night for dinner. To Rachael Wrbelis, the ability to find her own boyfriends. To Tammy Long, forget about John, he's just a lifesaver. To Sharon Clark, my car, know how much you hate to walk, GOOD LUCK! To John Moran, my ability to get through four years of H.S. look where you ended up—BALD. To Bret Bartlett, I leave my love and especially my honesty. To Ralph Arc my hair, I know how much he dreads getting sheered. And to all under classmen, the luck I never had with school.

I, Lorene Hook, being of sound mind (Valerie don't laugh) and sound body do bequeath: To Tammy Roman the gorgeous shelf in my locker so that each time she puts her books away next year she thinks of me in some far and distant land (A.S.U.) To some kind and courageous soul I leave the difficult task of reading the announcements to a group of people who DON'T CARE!! To Mr. Frison I leave the hope that he will find someone else to embarrass and confuse after I'm gone. And to Mr. Cady and Mr. Hjalmarson I leave my admiration and thanks for the influence they have had on my life.

I, Valerie Fritz, leave to Susan Parks my mallets and my bells, a roll of quarters to beat the sock off anyone crazy enough to challenge you at a video game. To Cindy Muterspaugh I leave all my mosquito and ant bites, my insect repellent and the locker all 4 of us shared. To Sal Rivera, I leave the cleverness to pack the bus and not to let anything fall on you. To Kevin Collins I leave a healthy supply of pens and correcto-type. To Gledion, I leave my bag of excuses about being late to sectionals. To Mr. Ashley I hope you get another student assistant to do all your dirty work for you. To Barry Burner, I leave the long homework assignments, the fun of being a wanted male and the wish to have a very wonderful and prosperous senior year. To Mr. Bishop, I leave a special thanks for being a truly great teacher. To Lorene, I leave a friendship that will last a life time and the memories of a "different" kind of year.

I, Ross Bergstedt, will to the 84-85 DECA Chapter all the patience and sanity remaining in reserve (although I believe that this will not exist by the end of this year). I also will to Mrs. Hocken and the next Chapter all the fun and love that stems from the wonderful organization. To all continuing and incoming students, the energy to succeed and be happy in life. And finally to Mr. Demko, I will my diskette with all its great programs that no longer can be accessed on directories in TRSDOS.

body I hereby will . . .

I, Deb Tooms, will to Lynn Skinner my brown and orange shoestrings and all my Teddy Bears, also all my preppy clothes along with my penny loafers. And my ability to get the pennies out. I will to Christopher my right to play basketball, my long legs to play soccer, and my ability to play softball and when she finds time, to play golf. I will to Irene Leon (authorized personnel) my Sun City Cheerleader outfit and my killer books. I will to Annette Slack my #1 position on the golf team. I will to Nancy Alvarez all my brilliant ideas. I will to Dr. Van my locker all my markers and my locker cleaning ability. I will to all the treasurers (John, Natalie, Sabine) the ability to get their reports done on time and a calculator so they will always be correct.

I, Rosie Gregoire, being of sound mind (no thanks to Trevor G. Browne H. S.) will to incoming freshmen the teasing I once had. To upcoming sophomores, I will all the new experiences. To upcoming juniors, I will all the partying I did, and all the trouble I never got caught in! To all upcoming seniors, the knowledge to live it up, because once it's over, it's over; make the best of what's left of your high school years. I will to all the girls, better looking guys with great personalities, (the kind at other high schools). I will that all who are younger brothers or sisters, are not reminded of it, like being Tom's little sister for God knows how long. The best of luck, make Trevor Browne the greatest.

Rose Marie Gregoire

I, Kris Krisell, will to my little brother, Jimmy some of my brains and the ability to stick with something that he's started. To Teri Lapinski, I will ALL her blonde streaks. To Michelle Hollmann, a big, heavy jacket to wear. To Greg Soto, 8 fingers and 2 thumbs. (I'm breaking them before I go!) Fix the dents on my car, too! To Tom Long, my dogs' sharp teeth if you come to my house! To Jim Lapinski, my love forever!

I, Lee Draper, being of very fast body and no mind will the following: To Toby, all the girls that used to warm me. I also leave him the ability to train over the summer. To my brother Chris, the ability to study as little as possible and still pass his classes. To Student Government, another sucker who will be willing to drive anywhere anytime for the good of the school (hopefully Toby). To Erick McCollum, my quick thinking and hope that he'll quit watching Dr. Who! To Mr. Sharp, my junk food lunch. To Mr. Bishop, (no I'm not leaving you hair or turtle wax) an umbrella to cut down on the glare when you are in the sun. To Mr. Hanley, (Why was Breughel such a schmuck?) four more jokers that will pass Humanities!

I, Mary Herrera, will to Sabine Steinborn my position as captain of the Cheerline, and my jumps; also a fantastic year. To Teresa Bratcher I leave you all the clowns, smiles and happiness of all the world (I can't forget Stella, Blanche and my backyard). Thanks. To Lynn Skinner, I will you a lifetime supply of our Student Governing Board's sandwiches, cookies, and apples, my position as Student Body V. P. and our song for the answering service in Yearbook. Natalie Chrisman, our songs, and a clean room. Teresa P., I leave you all the shrimp and Tabs of today. Lisa Berlanga a good time next year. To Mark Nixon, I leave you 1,000 dogs and the New Jam song. To Christine Woodard I leave you something 2 years from now and tons of fun. To my French buds a knowledge of what we're doing. To next year's Yearbook, I leave someone just like me who can't get their copy in on time. To everyone I forgot, a better senior year than I had.

Hi ya'll! I, Tracy Neill, being of drugged mind and thin body, do hereby bequeath, bestow, give, throw away, junk, get-rid-of and so forth the following: Since I have no surviving brothers or sisters at Trevor Browne my locker and books are up grabs. Warning! The locker is fried—it only works when it wants to. To my teachers I leave the following: Mr. Bishop, a trip to a hair replacement center. To Mr. Ashley, an official Taco Bell sign for his adobe shack. To Mrs. Hocken, the lady with the Mercedes, I leave plenty of Tylenol for the headaches ahead. I can't think of anything to give Mrs. Olin of the Cubby Hole, so I'll just wish her happy years ahead. Now, for the students: To anyone who has Mr. Bishop for English, I leave a pair of sunglasses to deflect the glare. I leave the Cafeteria to anyone wanting to die young. I leave El Oso Park to all who wish, need, want, must have a little partying at lunch; watch for the cops. I wish every student still attending Trevor lots of luck. You'll need it with all the budget changes and class-program changes and all. All I can say is put on your leather and party as much as possible. It's the only way to survive 1984-85. Have fun and hopefully I'll see you at the top, or the bottom, whichever I end up at.

Bye Ya'll Tracy Neill

I, Mellody Young, being of twisted mind and body, leave Ken Van Horny a lock of my hair to use as a moustache. I also leave you a can of "RAID" to fight off all the girls. To Danny I leave anything and everything green. To Tina And Brian, my wishes for a most happy life together. To my sister Georgia, I leave the hope of someday finding a boyfriend who resembles Billy Idol, Huey Lewis or Def Leppard. Lastly, to all the Thespians, I will the hope that someday people will pronounce the name of our organization correctly.

Natural gas is one of our safest servants when properly used. But a gas leak can be disastrous. If you smell the odor of gas and can't locate and correct the trouble right away, call us immediately. There's no charge for gas leak investigations.

The 1983-84 Wrestleretts

Row one: Suzie Hill, Lisa Lough, Lisa Sapien, Felicia McGinty, Susan Harris, Susan Parks. Row two: Tracy Tompkins, Yvonne Pena, Beth Conner, Chris Sauer, Michelle Cheche, Rosalinda Padilla, Sherrie

Shipman. Not pictured: Lynn Skinner, Missy Conner, Debbie Montgomery, Nancy Alvarez, Christy Hedstrom, Julie Beem.

We, the 1983-84 Wrestleretts, would like to thank all the Wrestlerett parents and especially the following people for all their help and support during the 83-84 wrestling season: Mr. and Mrs. Sauer, Mr. and Mrs. Gonzales, Mrs. Lough, Mrs. Schoenrad, Mrs. Tompkins, Mr. Parks, Mr. Garrett, Mr. Massingill and TGB maintainance.

The two most important people in this group are our sponsors, Mr. Sharp and Evelyn Gonzales. Mr. Sharp is a very busy person, involved with other activities, yet has taken time out and given love and support to the Wrestleretts. Evelyn Gonzales is another sponsor who means a lot for all the support and time she has given. Without these two people, Wrestleretts could not continue.

Everyone has worked very hard to make this year a successful one and the results are rewarding.

To Keely Brown I will the ability to handle all the B.S. I put up with this year. To Andrea Tatum I will the ability to find someone to get along with next year. To my brother Mikie, I will the brains to pass all his classes. To Mike Rogerson I will the ability to finally smear Wade. To Mr. Ragan I will all those grass spider webs in my auto's locker. Also, thanks for making my senior year the best yet. To Billy Black, I will the ability to be the best basketball player Trevor has ever had, that shouldn't be too hard. To Ken Barrier I will the ability to be the future "heart throb" of T.G.B. someday. To Jennifer Balzer, even though you're graduating, I will the ability to put up with Lain. To Michelle Malsch, even though you're graduating I will the ability to beat you-know-who in you-know-what! Good Luck, and have fun in all you do! Maria Rogers

I, Rachel Steele, will to Rosie Gregoire 1 new car for every football game next season 'cause you wrecked 1 at every game last year. To Sharon Ertel all the Izod shirts in California. To the bum in Whataburger, I will a new set of teeth and a blanket of his own. To Steve Perreault I will a pair of dark sunglasses to block the glare of Mr. Bishop's head. To Mr. Bishop, I leave 1 sex-ed class 'cause he needs it. To Mr. Ranshaw I leave 8 fingers and Krissy K.'s body when she turns 18. To my best friend Brenda I will a 2nd white wedding dress—I won't ask why you're wearing it this time—and the best night ever on September 23rd. I think you'll win the contest. And to Joy Cox, My brain to do with as he sees fit.

I, Robert G. Verville leave everything I had in High School so I won't have to remember it anymore. To Danny Turner, Beth Butler, Mary Burne, Teresa Bratcher I'll let you have anything you want because I told you I would. The only thing of value that I will leave anyone is my life, and I leave that to my girlfriend, Sherrie Shipman, soon to be Mrs. Sherrir Shipman. P.S. loved going to school here at T.G.B. Thanks to all my wild and craz teachers.

Love ya.

I, Mike Kuhlin, being of sound mind but not body will to the following: I will to Eddie Head all the lunch-time partying we did and all the Shasta he wants. To Christine Meyers, don't forget our joke about your clothes. To Toni Mahlam, try not to burp in public anymore. To Dean Donovan, I will all the Copenhagen he wants, so he doesn't have to ask anyone for a chew. Also to Joel Sing maybe by the time you play varsity basketball they will win a game. And finally to Karen Halvorson, anything I got it's yours. The Budacas thanks for all the good times we had, including all the incidents we had through the years.

I, Todd Hopper, being of 50% mind and 25% body will to all athletes all my surgeries and aches and pains. To Eddie Head, I leave the famous sandpit guard. To Tommy Marquez, I leave all my so called flirting abilities. To Sabine I give all my love and anything else she takes. To administration I will the ability to see things the way we do and the ability to remember you are here to help not to imprison. To the Budacas, I leave all the memories of the girls, minor conflicts, and all corn hauling. There is plenty more to come. And to T.G.B. I leave all the fun possible, a State Championship in football and baseball, and a winning season in basketball (IMPOSSIBLE).

I, Scott Willians leave to my old chums and chumetts the following: To Brat Gates I leave the job that I got her. You had better not mess it up or I'll tell everyone that you know your a "NC,NB,BB,W". Shawn just think of the fun you'll have with "Boy Hal". To Lisa Berlanga, I leave "woo-woo hey sexy" whenever she needs it next year. To Kelly Huff, Aubrey, Porter I leave the ability to respect Shawn. To Vernon I leave nothing. To the girls in my sixth-hour class, I leave all my home-ec talents. To Danny Turner I leave this message: "Nobody Likes a brat." To Julie "Slash—oh I cut my finger!" Schroeder, I leave a box of bandages and my job on the Yearbook, whatever it may be. To Ronda Pergalina I leave Shawn, "the biggest weinee of T.G.B." To Carla Jenkins, I leave my ability to spell. To T. Dunn, I leave a smokers kick-it-kit and a bus pass. And last but not least, I leave these words of advice to Clinton Hutton, "GET RID OF THE SCARF—YOU LOOK GOOFY!!"

I, Paul Boyer, being "here" leave Chris Draper, Troy and Ian Wolf many library memories, "You're outta there." To Chris I'll leave my favorite slides, a trip to "Alpine," and an easier way up and down the Canyon Trail. To Ian I'll give a lighter back-pack, "a quart?" and a night out with Virginia. To Troy "the freeway walker" I'll leave Mike at Mac's to deal with, Chris' big slow dumb feet, "ouch," and 7th hour cookies. To all three of you, two rolls of movie film, headphones, so we'll all agree on music, and the ever present and dearly beloved Jaewee. To Mr. Hjalmarson another year with the "Motley Crue," And to Shawn luck with this yearbook thing.

I Bob (Mister Bob, Captain Bob, Beaker) Sertich do hereby leave. . .

Wacko,

You're the best friend I have ever had or could ever have, you're the greatest. Don't let anything ever happen to break up our friendship, it's lasted for so many years, let's make it last a lifetime. You are my bestest friend.

A Place to Stay

Somewhere old heroes shuffle safely down the street. And you can speak out loud about your doubts and fears. What's more you never hear their standard issue kicking in your door. You can relax on both sides of the tracks and no one blows holes in bandmen by remote control. And no one kills the children anymore.

Good-Bye;

Melody Young, Tina Kemarly, Ron Kuhn, Randy Merrill, and Felica McGinty. I'll miss all of you. Thanks for making my freshman year so fun. Good Luck in the future.

Love Ya All

We're finally escaping from the "Asylum!" We're certainly no saner than when we came. We have all been "Dreamers" but "The Eye in the Sky" watched over us as we climbed "The Wall". Our "Innocent Age" has ended but we'll all "Take the Long Way Home". I'll be the marathoner linked to the P.L.O. Catch you later, Perv

Waldo

You are the most important thing in my life, I'll always love you. I hope all the promises you have made to me will someday come true. The memories we have shared will last a lifetime. You will always be my one and only.

I love you,
Margie

To all my "goofy" friends, and Debbie

Debbie, you are the sweetest sister (but then I always did lie) what will you do next year without your buddies?

David and Ron, you are the two most goofy friends I've ever had. It will be boring next year without you guys. But then again I won't have to listen to your dumb jokes. Bridget, I will always owe you a thank you for listening to all my problems. I wish you the best of luck with Chris. Hope you last forever.

Best of Friends &
Best of Luck,
Marge

To Brenda, Lori, Rachel, Walter, Scott and Shawn. You guys are terrific. You guys made these four years a cinch/well easier anyway.

Thanks,

BCL don't cut it!

Shawn, Bob, Paul, Hjalmarson, and newspaper,
Remember Spook Fav? And how about the Pee Wee Herman Club, was it a hit or what? Can't wait till next year, we'll be the publications. How about when you loaned everybody $, Primo. And to Bob thanks a lot for the book job. To Scott it was great. Paul yes you're right, I am too much.
Hjalmarson thanks for everything. And last to the annual paper thanks for attempting to put out one I really appreciate it. So thanks and thanks again.

Later and Pssst,
Danny "Too Much" Turner

Laurie,

Thanks for making this year such a blast! (lunch hour and English) Some day we'll understand Greg and Butch. Thanks for everything. You are a really special friend. Bye Robin, Mr. Bishop will never forget you. Goodbye to everyone in 3rd hour weight training. Cindy and Alicia call me any time for a game of raquetball!!! Goodbye to everyone in we'll let you take your Vanilla Waffers!

I love you all,

Desiree

P.S. Scott, Paul and Jane I'll never forget you guys in 2nd hour—"I got a 100!"

I can't believe tis place!!! Too many memories . .
. If these were the best years of my life then I'm in trouble. Scott, watch out for those flying books, they'll get you everytime. Shawn just remember that I'm not afraid to go to the movies alone. Bob, 2 years was just too much, too bad it's over (not really). Turner, just one word, "enjoy". Troy, Ian, never forget "the foot" or our "econo-shuttle".
Chris, a trip to a certain canyon is due to us this summer, maybe I'll drive (HA!). To my brother, who probably won't read this, thanks for all the help you've given me, I don't think I could've made it without you. And everyone else to whom I've been associated with for the past four years
Thanx (I think).

To Bob, Paul, Scott, and Danny

Well has it been great or what? I know or what.
I think it has been fun, memorable. It is too bad that the three of you are leaving. But hey, it has been really great. Just think of all the memories that would not have been without me. For example, Bob you will never forget breaking Kelly's sewing machine, and Paul will never forget "going to the movies alone!!!!" Scott I think you should just try to forget me in general, I realize it has not been easy for you having to deal with me. Last but not least Danny, boy now there are some memories, Pee
Wee, Spook Fav, and don't forget lunch at home because of lack of funds. But hey. Well guys it has been real and it has been fun but it hasn't been real fun.

Your Primo Bud,
Shawn

The years have now slowly passed
And memories are all that last
Of days when we were all we meant to be.

All the things that we once knew
Of growing up and thoughts of you
In times when only eyes could see.

We think back to when we were young
When children laughed and songs were sung
And all our thoughts were only dreams.

But now we know how tortures time
It dries our skin and dulls our mind
And all that glitters is not as it seems.

To Marissa,

'Goodbye, Farewell, and Amen'

Oh well! What can I say? I had hoped for a SUPERBOOK, but it didn't quite happen. It was kind of hard to do here at "The School That Apathy Built." I tried at least and I think it's pretty darn good (well great actually).

For those of you who are going to complain and I'm sure there's plenty, tough! You aren't going to find one better. Just remember it's not that easy to put out a 272 page yearbook and still try to live a halfway normal life (well live "a life" at least). So I don't want to hear it!!!

In a year when everything went wrong and somebody was always trying to ruin my life (always blame it on someone else) there were still lots of firsts (gloat time). I did what seems to have been impossible here at Browne by actually being "Editor-in-Chief" of a publication for two years without burning out or going crazy (okay, at least I didn't quit). In case you care the twenty-four pages of color was more than any Lair (that's the name of the yearbook) has ever had and the total number of color pictures is almost three times as many as any before. The black and white ain't too shabby either (so I'm stuck on myself, someone has to be).

Anyway, I hope that most of you can find it in your hearts to appreciate the book if nothing else (at least it isn't blue). I (we) tried really hard to get all the names correct and I think we did pretty good. I made a lot of small mistakes, but after all I am almost human. It should be better, but hey I'm not getting paid for this.

If it wasn't for a lot of people I would have had to work even harder and I thank them. Hjalmarson, thanks for giving me the room to do things my way, I know it wasn't easy. I owe Shawn Gates for putting up with the staff (and me) and getting them to do their copy. Paul Boyer, what can I say, if it wasn't for you I would've died taking all those shots of things I didn't want to shoot. Scott Williams (there I mentioned your name), thanks for doing whatever it was you did. Mary Herrera and Lynn Skinner, thanks for Mary being so peppy and Lynn being so confused. To the rest of the staff (you know who you are), thanks for at least trying to understand the way I like to do things and letting me do it without too much of a hassle. My very, very special thanks go to Valerie Fritz for being so wonderful, inspirational, and helpful.

To all those faces of the past who without which I would be nothing, hey look at me now. Well Robb (two b's no y, right!) what do you think? Corlett thanks for teaching the ultimate art of pushing film instead of "FLASH." To all of the yearbookies of years gone by, thanks for not dropping by to remind me how great the book you worked on was. Finally, to my dear, sweet (ha! ha!) sister Kim, who I'm sure will find more faults than anyone else, thanks for anything and everything I should thank you for.

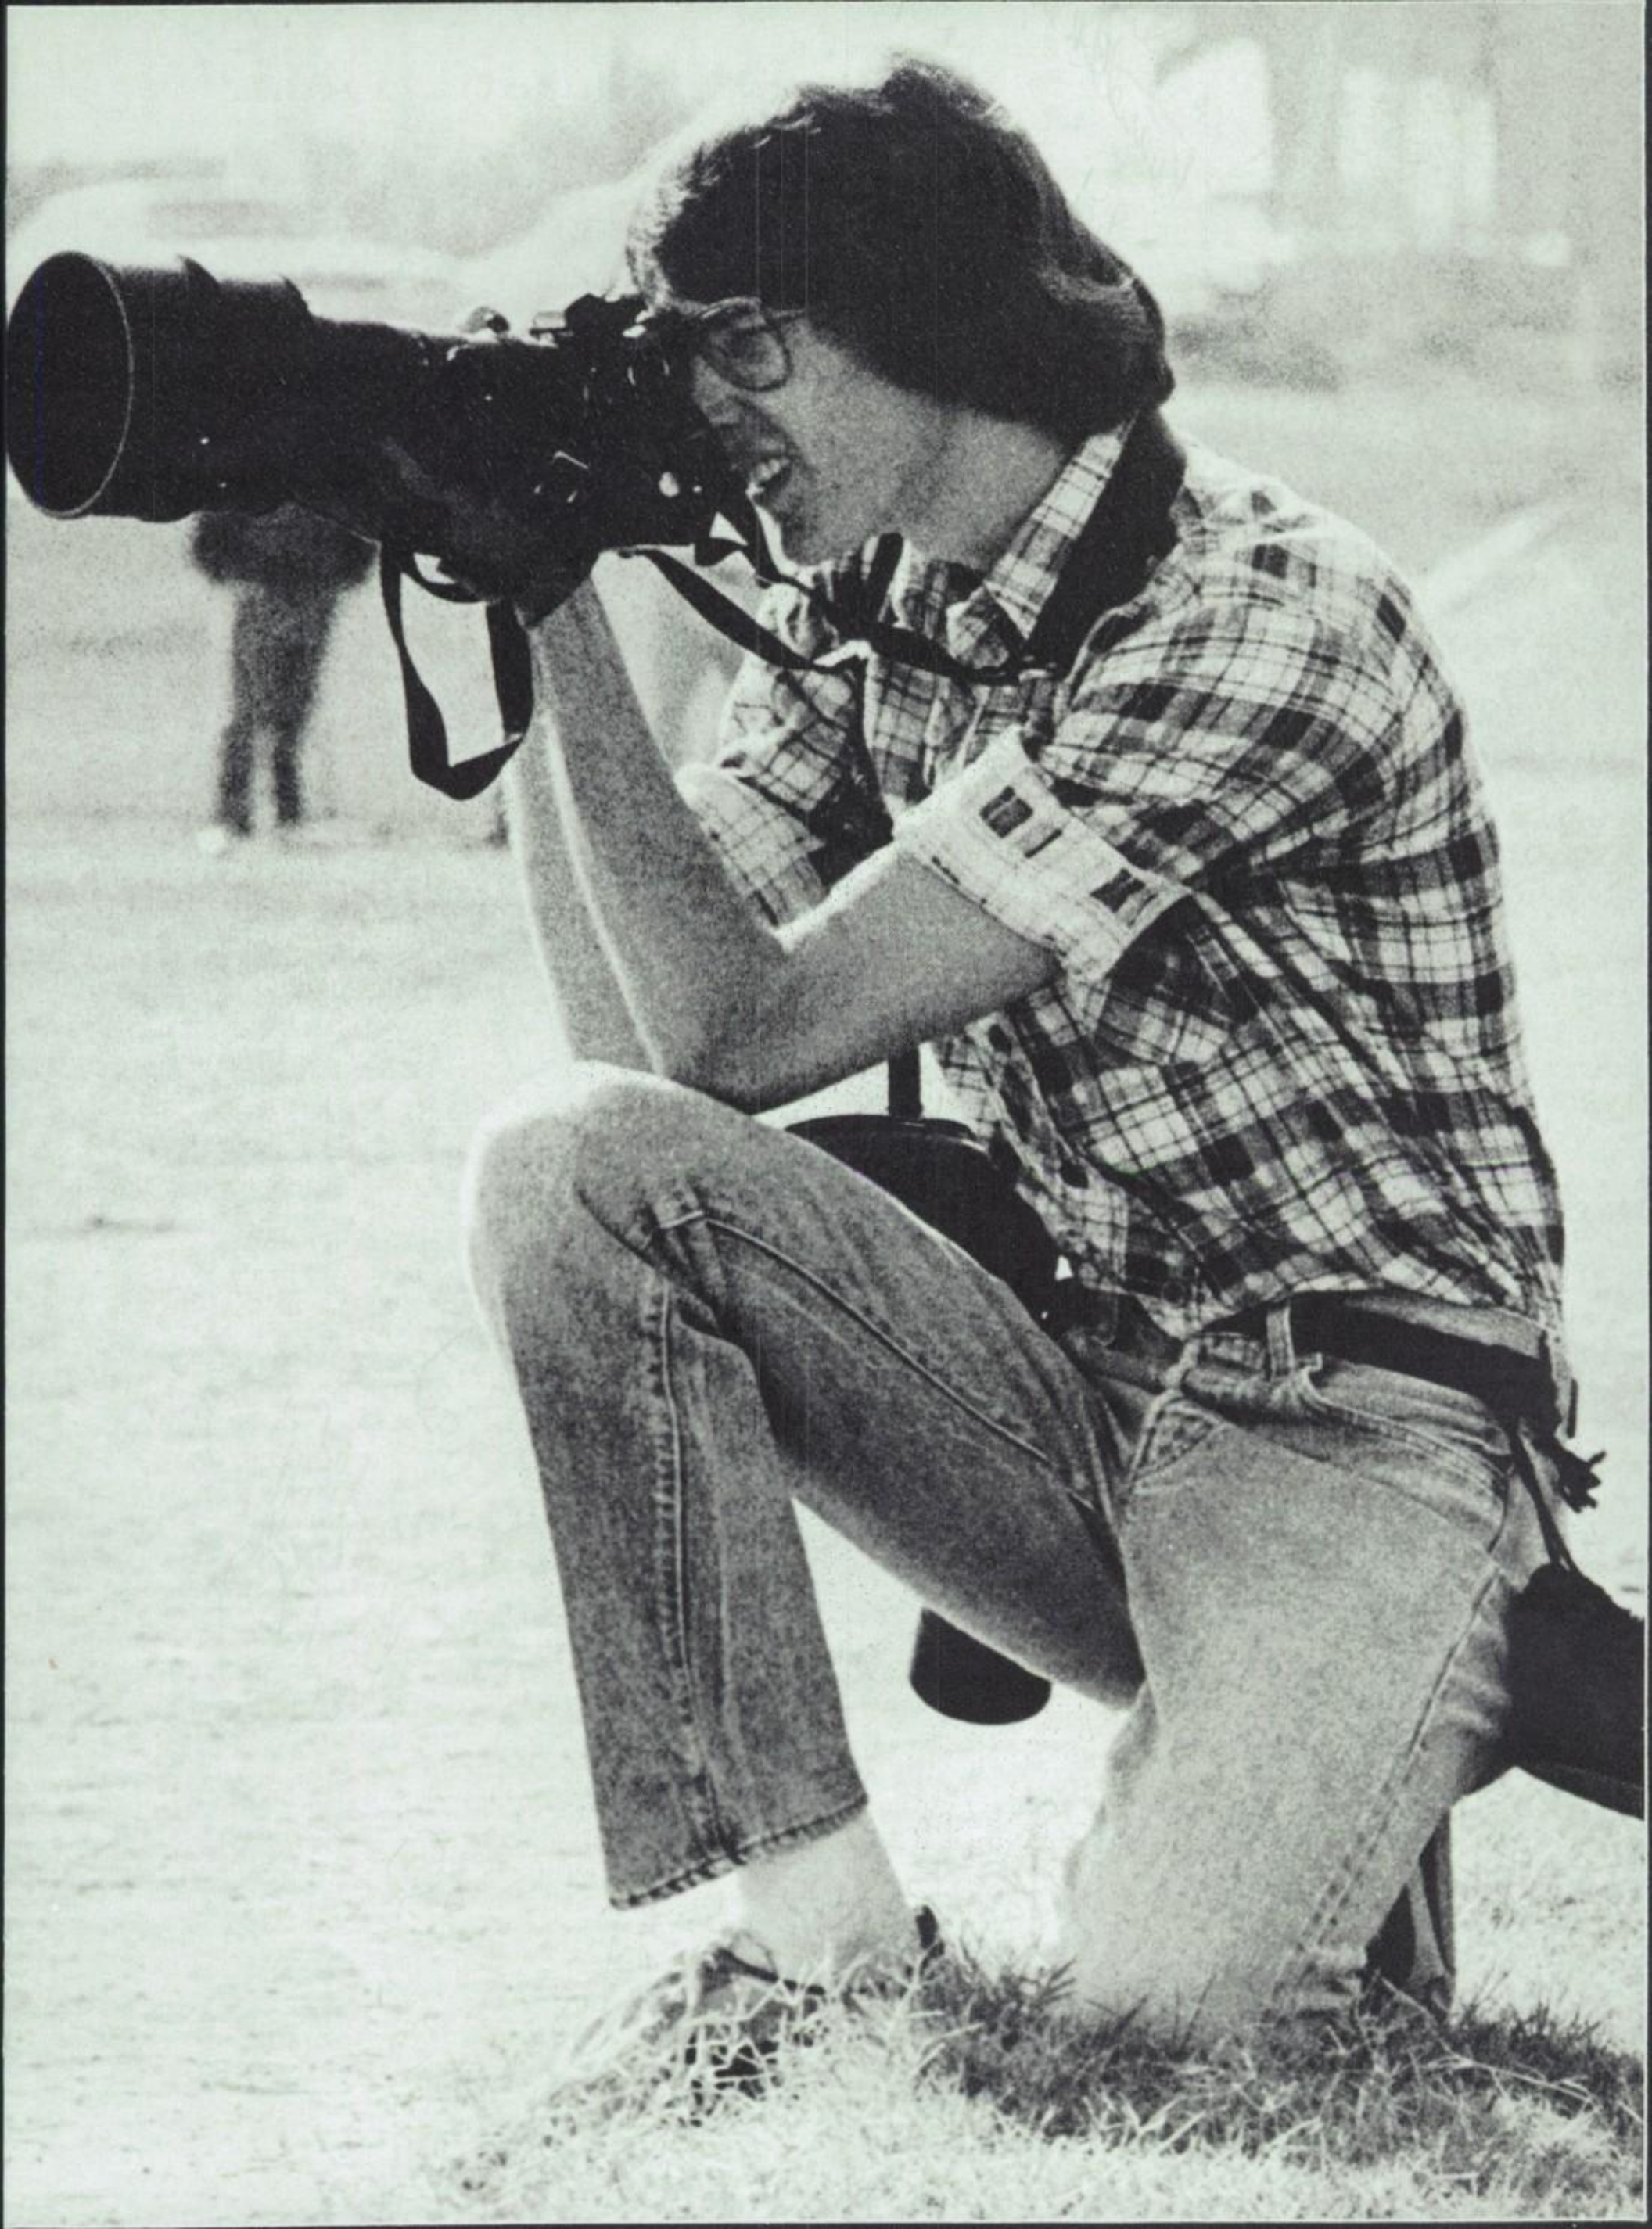

Well guys it's been great. However, I must admit I'm glad I'm finally leaving. After four yearbooks and four years of the excitement one brings, I think I've had enough. There are plenty of things that I'm sure I will never forget: single assemblies in the gym (Browne's cat of tuna imitation), all of my friends (or should I say those of you who actually talked to me and didn't throw stuff at me while I was standing down on the football field), shooting things that most students don't even know exist (Browne has a badminton team? You sure you're not thinking of the football team?), those crazy forgetful student government people (Oh, were we supposed to have spirit games this week? Oh well!), Bol Wilcox Studios (Sure we can take 2000 students picture in one day.), all of the teachers who amazingly got their picture taken by dozens of yearbook photographers (funny, there's only two of us), journalism conventions (Don't be afraid to use a flash. My photographers have a problem. and Daring to be different.), Phoenix Gazette and Arizona Republic photographers (You're dressed up like Santa Claus and you're laughing at me.), printing after school (I always thought that you were supposed to leave school when it was still light outside.), Hostess bite-size donuts and Coke (what a nutritious lunch), advanced classes (We're advanced. We don't have homework.), hams (Take my picture! Take my picture!), Africa (the slowest version ever known to man), deadlines (What deadlines?), not going to State (it would have made a great color spread), people who just can't understand (Why?), signatures (at least three for every page, that's over 800), the memories (the one thing that can never be and never should be forgot). If I've offended anybody I'm sorry. Just sit down, take a deep breath and calm down.

I really must apologize for some of the things that came about because I decided that just maybe I should think about myself instead of the yearbook. For all of those pictures that aren't quite up to my standards and for all of the things that resulted from throwing pages together the day they're going to be mailed I do humbly say I'm sorry. Yearbooks take up a lot of time, especially when you like to do most of it yourself. If I let anyone down I apologize. I know I let myself down a little. Not because the book is bad, because it certainly isn't, but because I know that I could have done better. Somewhere along the line with everything going wrong I lost a little bit of the enthusiasm and I looked around for encouragement and it was rare. Never-the-less the book is done and what you see is what you get.

It's time for me to go and I could say I quit, but I think Huck said it best (right Corlett): "... so there ain't nothing more to write about, and I'm rotten glad of it, because if I'd 'a' knowed what a trouble it was to make a book I wouldn't 'a' tackled it, and ain't a-going to no more ..."
